Skinny Skribbles

Around And About Town

With C. F. (Skinny) SKIRVIN

Four hundred thousand dollars is some money to be distributed to Orange county lima bean growers. This distribution is set for next Saturday. It will percolate through the various channels of business, help the grower and also the man on the sidelines. That is the ramification of all industry. It goes beyond the individual or organization responsible for its immediate creation. Maybe that's one reason why the concern of one is the concern of all. And the more prosperous the producer the more business he is able to create. Low prices for the necessities of life means that life isn't so abundant. When the farmer is unable to make a profit out of his labor he cannot become a customer.

And the few who opened a political headquarters was creating quite a furor for soap and water and could use a broom. She wanted to sweep out on her own motion. The voters may make a clean sweep later on.

"Dooley" Jeffrey has flown north with the ducks. Hunters sent him word the flight was in the direction of the northern lights, so "Dooley" lit out to find them. He says the worry of locating ducks can be no worse than the orange business, so he is winging his way to the duck habitat. My order went with the sharpshooter. Whether it will be filled remains to be proven.

When you ask for a private interview and reach your objective, only to find a full office complement present, well, you might as well broadcast the interview or cancel it altogether.

Adrian Marks submits a card for the candidate's hall of fame. Adrian has been here all the time. He wants to represent Orange county in the general assembly in an unselfish way. Says he's a Republican, but he will represent Democrats too, if they'll let him.

San Diego has snowflakes, says a press item. San Diego also has a number of unsolved murders.

According to official report it cost the "Hail and Eggers" $241,608 to get the "30 Every Thursday" retirement plan on the November 1st. Evidently somebody believes in it.

The Merriam for governor headquarters have been reopened. Closed following the primary, not for repairs, but for a breathing spell. I often wonder where all the money comes from to keep politics out of the referee's office.

Just from a cursory observation I am inclined to the belief that there is not so much money flying around as during the Merriam-Sinclair campaign. Times are harder, which naturally lowers the interest and at the same time contributions, and there is nothing that keeps up interest like money.

Sheriff Aided Quizzed

Grace Hall, stenographer in Sheriff Logan Jackson's office, was quizzed for more than an hour yesterday afternoon by the special grand jury, as it continued its probe of the "Fools Rush In" defamatory pamphlet.

Miss Hall was summoned by the inquisitors following testimony of Otto Jacobs, Santa Ana attorney who denounced Jackson after the pamphlet—which praised the sheriff—appeared just before the primary election, and A. B. Berry, editor of the tabloid weekly Santa Ana Independent and longtime foe of the sheriff.

Following Miss Hall's testimony, Phil Brown, manager of the Business Men's association, talked with the grand jury briefly.

Then jurors adjourned until tomorrow morning, when they will resume their month-long search for the author of the pamphlet which "classified" candidates for (Continued on Page 3, Col. 2)

ITALIANS BOO MAYOR OF N. Y.

NEW YORK. (AP)—A crowd of 10,000 Italian-Americans today booed Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia with shouts of "Viva Mussolini!" at Columbus day exercises in Columbus circle.

With LaGuardia ill at his home, Deputy Fire Commissioner Francis X. Giaccone was shouted down when he attempted to speak for the mayor.

The catcalls, whistles and boos finally subsided when Giaccone appealed to the "tolerance and generosity of you men and women of Italian blood."

The cause of the hostility against LaGuardia, himself of Italian descent, was not apparent. Some officials said it might have been based on LaGuardia's verbal attacks on Adolf Hitler.

10 Arrested In Tar-Feather Case

MARIETTA, Ohio. (AP)—Wesley Hasley, 65, and nine relatives and friends were held in jail today for grand jury investigation in connection with the application of tar and feathers to Evangelist Joseph A. Dixon, 42, about an hour after he married Hasley's daughter, Opal, 22.

All 10 pleaded innocent to conspiracy - to kidnap charges filed late yesterday by Dixon, Nazarene preacher from Madison, S. D., who was found earlier sprawled beside a road in nearby Mill Creek community.

McCoys and Frank Miller of Ripon are the two official delegates of the state's 8000 future farmers. Accompanying them are livestock, dairy cattle and poultry judging teams.

Sardine Fishermen Plan Nov. 7 Tieup

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—Possibility of a strike of CIO sardine fishermen at Monterey "at the next full moon" was confirmed today by Andrew Vigen, secretary of the Alaska Fishermen's union here.

The full moon occurs Nov. 7. The time was chosen because boats usually lay off for repairs for a week when the moon is so bright sardine schools cannot be sighted.

Jurisdictional strife between the CIO fishermen and a newly organized AFL union, which has signed contracts with boat and plant owners, was at the source of the dispute.

CHICAGO. (AP)—A cool wave, accompanied by rains, was moving eastward from the northwest today to bring an end to the revival of summer in much of the Middle West the last few days.

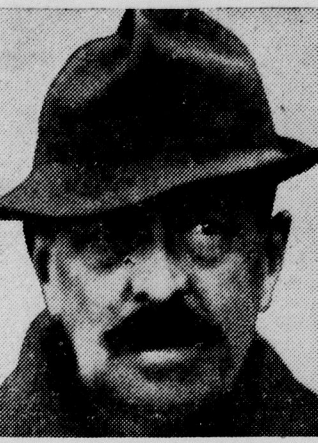

Grand Duke Cyril, 'Russian Czar,' Dies

PARIS. (AP)—The Grand Duke Cyril Vladimirovich, head of the house of Romanoff and self-proclaimed "Czar of all the Russias," died today in the American hospital here. He was 62 years old.

The pretender to the vanished throne of the Russian empire, an exile in France since the Bolshevik revolution, had been seriously ill for two weeks, suffering from gangrene of one leg. He had become so weak that doctors feared to operate.

With him at the end were his brothers, the Grand Dukes Boris and Andrew, and his sister, the Grand Duchess Helen, now Princess Nicholas of Greece. She is the mother of Princess Marina, the Duchess of Kent.

The grand duke's wife, the Grand Duchess Victoria Feodorovna, granddaughter of Queen Victoria of England, died March 2, 1936.

GRAND DUKE CYRIL

Three children survive the grand duke. His son, Grand Duke Vladimir, born at Haiko, Finland, Aug. 17, 1917, while the family was fleeing from the revolution in Russia, becomes head of the house of Romanoff and succeeds to the claim to the non-existent throne.

AUTOS CLAIM 55TH VICTIM

Orange county traffic claimed its fifty-fifth life today when Antonio Palomino, 50, of Westminster, died at the Orange county hospital, from injuries sustained in an automobile accident Sunday.

Palomino was injured when the automobile which he was driving was involved in a collision with a machine driven by Yafuko Aihara, Garden Grove, at the intersection of Bolsa and Cannery streets one mile east of Midway City, highway patrolmen said.

Hospital attaches reported Palomino went into a coma at about 4 p. m. yesterday, passing away at 12:30 a. m. today.

Palomino's daughter was also injured in the accident, suffering a fractured skull.

Rescuers found the four bodies along a trail where they had been trapped.

Provincial police learned Mrs. Fyle, an expectant mother, had been staying at her parents' cabin, some distance from the Fyle place. When the fires threatened Monday she left with her small boy and sister to warn her husband who was cutting pulpwood. They apparently reached Mr. Fyle and all died then in a vain attempt to flee the sweeping flames. Her mother's home did not burn.

CHEST PASSES HALF MARK

The Community Chest drive passed the half way mark today. At the daily noon meeting of the campaigners pledges totaling $17,770 were reported.

That is 72 per cent of the goal. In the residential division, the unit led by Mrs. Charles F. Smith topped the others with 55 per cent of the quota subscribed.

Bancroft Says He Has Never Been 'Good Republican'

BAKERSFIELD. (AP)—Philip Bancroft, Republican candidate for U. S. senator, declares "most of the objectives and principles of the New Deal are sound."

In a bid for Democratic votes, Bancroft told a campaign meeting here yesterday that he would "support President Roosevelt when I think he is right."

I have never been a good Republican," he added.

Texas Grapefruit, Orange Crop Gains

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—The U. S. department of agriculture today forecast a Texas grapefruit crop of 15,000,000 boxes, based on conditions of Oct. 1, a 27 per cent increase above last year's production.

It said orange production of 2,000,000 boxes was indicated. This compared with 1,440,000 boxes produced last year.

JOBS CALL 4200 FLINT, Mich. (AP)—Two divisions of General Motors Corp. today announced the recall to jobs within the next 12 days of 4200 workmen.

21 DEAD IN FOREST FIRE

By the Associated Press. Finding of four more bodies in the Danco township, Ontario, forest fire area brought to 21 today the known dead from the blazes that swept the Minnesota-Canada border region Monday.

Several others were missing including six members of the Stone family.

The latest victims accounted for were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fyle, age 21 and 19 respectively; and 18-month-old son, Donald, and Mabel Larson, 12-year-old sister of Mrs. Fyle.

Their burned home was in the area, fifty miles northwest of Fort Frances, Ont., where at least 14 others perished.

Rescuers found the four bodies along a trail where they had been trapped.

Provincial police learned Mrs. Fyle, an expectant mother, had been staying at her parents' cabin, some distance from the Fyle place. When the fires threatened Monday she left with her small boy and sister to warn her husband who was cutting pulpwood. FLOOD THREAT TO L. B. SEEN

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—County authorities moved today to secure state funds for removal of accumulated silt in the Los Angeles river channel near the ocean, after being informed a dangerous flood menace to the city of Long Beach exists.

Supervisor Herbert C. Legg announced he would go to Sacramento tomorrow to attempt to obtain additional state allocations, after he and Supervisor Leland M. Ford informed a Long Beach citizens' group that Los Angeles county cannot afford to undertake the work—cost of which was estimated at $50,000.

R. H. Dorion, Long Beach city manager, and W. L. Jones, president of the emergency flood control committee, headed the Long Beach group.

Judith Allen's Jewelry Stolen

VAN NUYS. (AP)—Burglars entered the home of Judith Allen, screen actress and former wife of Jack Dooley, boxer (he who got slapped in New York night before last) here last night and took jewelry valued at $1000.

Mrs. John D. Elliott, the actress' mother, reported the robbery today. Miss Allen is in Chicago for a radio engagement.

Pope Pius XI Assails 'Sordid Game of Power and Prestige'

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Pope Pius XI wrote Catholic prelates of the United States today that Catholics necessarily are defenders of "true human liberties."

His letter, sent here to be read at a convocation opening the golden jubilee year of the Catholic University of America, was interpreted by church officials as an indirect reproach to countries denying liberty to the individual.

"The world has entered upon one of those periods of unrest, of questioning, of disorientation and of conflict which have been well described as turning points of history," the letter said.

"Christian doctrine and Christian morality are under attack from several quarters; dangerous theories which a few years ago were but whispered in the secret conventicles of discontent are today preached from the housetops, and are even finding their way into action; private morality and public substance have in many places raised the banners of revolt against the cross of Christ. . . .

Czechs Dig in For War

BUDAPEST. (AP)—Czechoslovak and Hungarian troops established fighting positions 250 feet apart today, awaiting the outcome of deadlocked diplomatic negotiations on Hungarian demands for Czechoslovak territory.

The lines were established following yesterday's occupation of two Czechoslovak frontier towns, Ipolyvas and Satorajka Ujhely, by the Hungarian forces.

The occupation was a "symbolic overture," Hungarians said, to recovery of thousands of square miles from Czechoslovakia.

Czechoslovak troops at Ipolyvas withdrew three-fourths of a mile to the north of the town and started at once to dig trenches in potato fields and surrounding forests.

Hungarian infantry followed suit, establishing positions at close range. Hungarian heavy artillery was firing position.

There was concern here that Czechoslovak soldiers, angered by territorial losses to Germany, would prefer to fight against any new concessions.

HITLER MAY AID KOMAROM

KOMAROM, on the Czechoslovak-Hungarian border. (AP)—Persons close to the Slovak delegation in the Komarom conference on the territorial dispute between Hungary and Czechoslovakia said today that the Slovaks had asked Adolf Hitler to mediate "in this serious matter."

Slovak said after a meeting today of the two delegations that they were so widely apart that it did not appear their differences could be bridged by ordinary negotiation.

The only hope, they said, was that some foreign statesman could convince the Hungarian government that its demands were "sky high" and a danger to European peace.

Previously it had been reliably indicated that the Hungarians were asking for some 5000 square miles of southern Slovakia and that the Slovaks—to whom the Prague government has delegated the Komarom negotiations—were willing to cede only about 2000 square miles.

GOES TO BERLIN

BERLIN. (AP)—Frantisek Chvalkovsky, new foreign minister of Czechoslovakia, will reach Berlin tomorrow morning for conferences with Foreign Minister Joachim Von Ribbentrop, said an official announcement tonight.

Chvalkovsky, a former minister to Berlin, had been expected ever since entering the Prague cabinet early this month to come to Berlin to seek a new basis for relations between Germany and dismembered Czechoslovakia.

BRITISH PLAN REJECTED. P. R. A. G. U. E. (AP)—Premier Jan Szyrovsky today rejected a British plan to allow Sudeten German refugees to remain two months in Czechoslovakia pending organization of international aid for them.

The premier replied that Czechoslovakia had reason to fear new agitation if great numbers of Germans were taken into the republic. Although most fugitives were anti-Nazi, he said, they already were demanding German schools.

Szyrovsky added that many other difficulties, chiefly economic, stood in the way of the British plan.

Wreckage of Plane Found on Glacier

BERNE, Switzerland. (AP)—Wreckage of a German airliner missing since Oct. 1 with 10 passengers and a crew of three was sighted today high on a glacier near the Italian-Swiss border.

Although experienced Alpine climbers were striving to reach the difficult spot, little hope was held that any of the 13 occupants, including two women and a child, were alive.

Guides expressed belief that any who might have survived the crash would have died of cold and hunger.

New Jap Force Drives on Canton

Stopped by Posse on State Line

Motorists entering the state of Nevada were stopped and questioned by this armed posse which blockaded the highway near Verdi, Nev., when a group of California CIO workers threatened to invade the state to picket a highway construction project near Reno. Abandoning plans to enter the state, they announced they would set up picket lines on highways leading to Nevada to discourage motorists from travelling through the state.

RARE, DELICATE OPERATION ON 5-POUND BABY SAVES ITS LIFE

A tiny baby boy, born prematurely less than a month ago with no lower opening in his stomach, was alive and healthy today as the result of a rare, delicate operation performed here Saturday by Dr. Paul H. Esslinger of San Juan Capistrano.

Details of the operation were revealed today as little Robert Joseph Yracburu, son of a Doherney Park merchant, gurgled and cooed normally in Santa Ana Valley hospital, gaining two ounces a day and in the best of health, thank you.

Robert Joseph was born Sept. 15 to Mrs. Eugene Yracburu in the Valley hospital, a month earlier than he had been expected. By mistake, Nature had failed to provide an opening from his stomach to his intestines—the baby could take in food but was unable to digest it properly.

This condition caused him to lose weight shortly after he was taken home after a 10-day stay at the hospital. Weighing less than six pounds at birth, the child had lost weight to less than five pounds when he was taken back to the hospital last week.

On Saturday Dr. Esslinger operated on the tiny, delicate baby. He carefully cut the opening Nature had failed to provide, connecting Robert Joseph's stomach with the upper end of his intestine.

Today dozens of physicians had visited the hospital to see the baby, now gaining weight, eating heartily, his temperature and disposition normal.

25,000 WOMEN IN JOB MOB

WASHINGTON. (AP)—A milling throng of women—civil service commission officials said there were 25,000—stormed a Washington police station today in an effort to qualify for jobs as charwomen in federal buildings here.

Two thousand application blanks were to be given out but officials, who said they feared a riot, stopped the distribution at 1500. Police lines were broken in disorder.

The crowd—a mass of negroes with a sprinkling of white women—began forming last night. Police estimated 3000 were in line at 3 a. m. today—all wanting to get the $90-a-month jobs. Many brought blankets, pillows and chairs.

Electricity Kills Horses But Riders Escape Uninjured

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP)—M. C. Hancock and W. B. Harris, riding horseback, decided to cut through a pool of water.

Only by the inches separating them from the water did they miss death. Both horses had been electrocuted. The pool was charged by a broken electric wire.

Ex-Officer Guilty In Morals Case

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Convicted of two moral offenses against the 5-year-old daughter of a Los Angeles police officer, John Adams, suspended policeman, will be sentenced tomorrow. The child was a neighbor of Adams.

When the verdict was returned, the wife of the convicted man collapsed and was taken from the courtroom by a bailiff.

137 Ships In Raid

HONGKONG. (AP)—Japan's new south China army, estimated at 30,000 to 50,000 men, was reported moving steadily inland from Bias Bay today against little or no Chinese resistance.

Brought into Bias Bay, just northeast of Hongkong, in more than 60 transports and landed through a blast of naval guns, this new army, including a brigade of marines, began marching toward the vital railway that brings supplies from Canton to beleaguered Hankow.

The Japanese backed their landing by sending their air forces over Kwangtung province, the most extensive series of bombing raids south China has seen since last December.

Dispatches from Canton said a total of 137 Japanese planes took part in the raids, which struck at several vital points, and that civilian casualties were believed to be heavy.

Japanese air raids destroyed three bridges on the Canton-Kowloon railway, believed to be first objective of the drive. As a result the afternoon Canton-bound train returned to Kowloon, which is British territory.

Military leaders of Kwangtung province, of which Canton is the capital, were reported rushing reinforcements to the three divisions normally charged with defense of the Bias Bay area. It was expected that the next 24 hours would test both the defense organizations and fighting spirit of the Cantonese.

As far as could be learned, the Japanese late today were forming at the northwest corner of Bias Bay for an advance along a highway which crosses the Canton-Kowloon railway about halfway between the two termini.

Observers surprised pointed out that at least three Chinese divisions had been stationed in the Bias Bay area as a first defense against invasion. The observers expressed surprise consequently at the apparent ease with (Continued on Page 3, Col. 5)

British Continue Drive on Arabs

JERUSALEM. (AP)—British troops spreading out over the Holy Land in punitive expeditions to end Jewish-Arab violence killed six Arabs in a clash with terrorists today.

The troops were attempting to demolish a house in the Nablus district from which bombs had been thrown Monday when the terrorists attacked soldiers from nearby houseposts.

Reinforcements arrived and the British fighters subdued the band in a 90-minute skirmish.

King Invited To Visit Southland

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Los Angeles officials hung the welcome sign out today for the king and queen of England—just in case they decide to visit the United States when they go to Canada.

The county board of supervisors decided to send an invitation to their majesties to visit Southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Shafer brought the former's father, A. C. Shafer, of Los Angeles to their home at 530 South Ross street for a week's vacation during the absence of Mr. Shafer's daughter who has gone to Honolulu for a month's visit.

Japs Want Backing Here For Large Airplane Factory

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Vice Admiral Kenji Masahara, who came to the United States for the dual purpose of inspecting airplane factories and floating a $45,000,000 loan or stock issue to erect a Manchurian aircraft plant, prepared today to head east for conferences with financiers. The admiral himself admitted that the war with China has proved such a drain on Japan's finances that the nation is incapable of financing such a project. Raw materials, engineers and mechanics for the factory, to be located in Mukden, Manchoukuo, would come from this country, he said.

Dozen Oil Tanks Explode in N. J.

LINDEN, N. J. (AP)—A dozen storage tanks exploded and caught fire today at the Cities Service oil refining plant at Trembly Point, caused evacuation of a factory a half-mile away and endangered several adjacent oil villages. Fire fighting forces from five towns, near-by companies and New York City harbor fire department fought the flames from a distance, unable to close in because of the intense heat. The first explosion destroyed a 1,680,000-gallon tank of crude oil, blasting its roof onto railroad tracks 100 feet away.

Liberal Security Legislation Urged

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Monsignor Thomas J. O'Dwyer of Los Angeles, president of the national conference of Catholic charities, recommended today liberalization of the old age insurance provisions of the National Social Security act as the best answer to the "Utopian schemes" of providing for the aged. As the first step for liberalizing the act, Monsignor O'Dwyer suggested that the government begin making old age payments in 1940 instead of 1942 as is at present provided.

A. F. L. Prepares Attack on New Deal's 'Socialistic' Laws

STATE'S POWER EXTENDED TOO FAR, IS VIEW

HOUSTON. (AP)—The American Federation of Labor convention sent back to its executive council for "further study" today a resolutions committee report broadly attacking trends and tendencies in recent government legislation it labeled as "Socialism."

The recommittee vote was taken after President William Green said some phases of the report were "a bit confusing" and delegates on the floor objected on the grounds it might be considered an attack on New Deal policies.

Chairman, Matthew Woll of the resolutions committee, did not object to recommitment, but stoutly defended the report as a reflection of the views of the committee.

"This report," Woll said, "is not in any sense a criticism of the administration. On the contrary we find much in the administration to praise."

The report asserted that in its infancy trade unionism decided its principles should provide that it wanted nothing from government which it could obtain for itself by voluntary collective action, and that the labor movement "must make its own policies and control its own destinies."

"At this hour," the committee added, "we are in danger of losing the benefit of both of these principles." "The tendency of today," report added, "for the state to take over more and more the functions which we believe belong to the labor movement itself, in and through its organizations. Already the state is seizing control of our destiny through a national labor relations board which has and uses the power to define the boundaries of our unions, to determine what shall be their character and even when and where there is or is not a strike in effect."

The committee, specifically pointing out that in its reference to the "state" it meant principally the federal government, said: "Without any intention of using a label as a means of conveying disparagement, we must say that it should be clear to every American that the philosophy which is being developed in action, by which ever-increasing domain is being given to the state, is expressive of the philosophy and practice of Socialism."

L. B. MITCHELL, NEW PRESIDENT KIWANIS CLUB

Lyle B. Mitchell was elected president of the Santa Ana Kiwanis club at the annual election meeting in Masonic temple this afternoon.

Mitchell, who succeeds Maurice Enderle as president, will take office January 1 along with other new officers elected today.

Dr. Fred E. Eareel was elected treasurer for the coming year. Mitchell served as vice president during the past year, while Gus Leive was secretary.

Three new directors were elected, including Charles E. Walker, Dr. G. Emmett Raitt and Allison Homer.

The newly elected officers will be installed at the annual Christmas party.

Calvin C. Flint, dean of men at Santa Ana Junior college, was principal speaker at the luncheon meeting.

RUSSIANS SAY WAR IS NEAR

MOSCOW. (AP)—Pioneer Moscow, the Soviet Russian children's newspaper, warned its readers today that "a bloody and cruel world war is near—nearer than Chamberlain (British prime minister) thinks."

The newspaper said Germany would not be satisfied with the Czechoslovak settlement, and probably would want "a taste of French meat next."

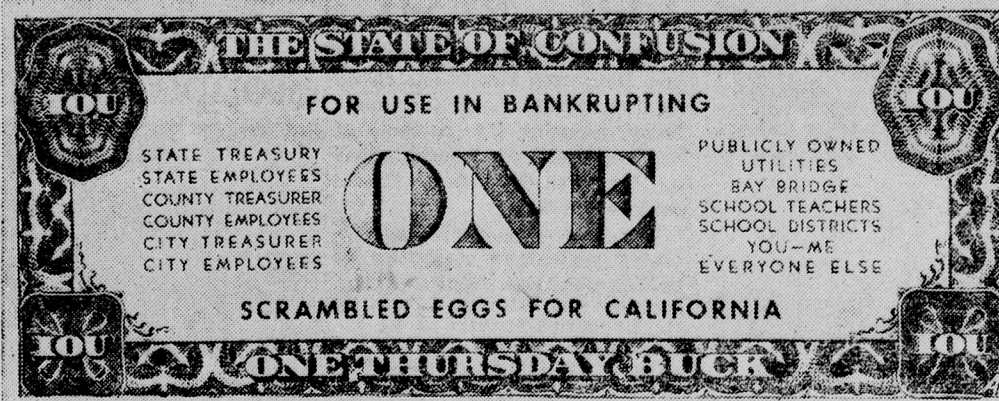

The article went on to say that the Soviet Union alone is strong against the "Fascist menace," and that it is to the Soviet Union that small countries look with hope.

"Developments in Spain and China show that only the Soviet Union can give a helping hand in the difficult fight against usurpers and Fascists."

Farm Bureau's 21st Birthday Recalls Window-Jimmying For Organization Meeting

They had to jimmy a window to do it—but members of a small committee which formed the Farm Bureau in 1917 said today their efforts were worth while.

J. A. Smiley of Santa Ana, one of the original group, revealed the organization's peculiar beginning today in observing the bureau's twenty-first birthday.

It was in 1917 that the committee held its first meeting toward organization of a farm bureau. Members gathered at the courthouse, where they were scheduled to meet, and found the doors locked. Feeling something like prowlers, they rattled doors and windows. Finally they found an unlocked window in the weights and measures department and climbed in for their meeting.

W. L. Grubb, now a resident of Santa Ana, had been president of the Santa Ana Farm center and acted as temporary chairman of the group. H. B. Woodrough of Harmer center—now Costa Mesa—was elected first president of the bureau.

Smiley was named vice president; W. L. York of La Habra was second vice president, and S. S. Twombly of Fullerton was named secretary-treasurer. Twombly still is active as a member of the Placencia farm center.

"The farm bureau was set up during the war period," explained Executive Secretary C. J. Marks today, "as a means of helping stimulate production and organize the farmers and educate them in improved cultural practices. Direct assistance to this project was given by the Agricultural Extension service of the nation, and for many years the farm bureau offices were housed with the extension service."

"In 1933 the Orange County Farm Bureau established its own separate offices in the Medical building in Santa Ana, and in 1937 moved into their present county offices on North Main street near Orange. An average of well over 1300 members has been maintained for more than 10 years. The membership is by family unit, a single membership including the entire family."

The local group publishes its own magazine, and has entered into the activities of the county affecting agriculture in a material way. Local members are also affiliated with the state farm bureau, which has units in almost every county in the state, and with the national farm bureau, with its headquarters in Chicago and Washington, and with units in each of 43 states of the nation.

Deputy Decides to Spend His Time Elsewhere When Hide Of Deer is Deposited on Desk

Poundmaster Harold Pickering presented the sheriff's office with a strange aroma today, although he met with some slight opposition.

The aroma came from a deceased deer, its hide found on West First street between Artesia and Sullivan streets this morning. Pickering located the hide easily, then brought it to the sheriff's office to await disposal by Game Warden Walter Emerick.

He planted it in Chief Criminal Deputy Merle Dean's office, despite protests from Deputy John Gilmore, who said the hide "smelled bad."

"Aw," said Pickering, "I can't smell it—it was only killed last night."

He closed the door to Dean's office, and Dean decided to spend the morning elsewhere.

ITALIANS WARN BRITISH AND FRENCH FOES

ROME. (AP)—Italy today warned French and British enemies of Fascism against nourishing hopes of a "preventive war" against Italy and Germany after the Munich accord dismembering Czechoslovakia.

An official "diplomatic information" believed written by Premier Mussolini himself, gave "unconditional approval" to Chancellor Hitler's speech at Saarbrücken Sunday.

Hitler said Germany wanted peace but continued to rearm because "there are those abroad who do not want peace."

A "preventive war" is wanted, said today's Italian statement, by groups and parties in France and Britain "led everywhere by Jews." "Now, in timely form, the Fuehrer has directed the attention of the German people and also of the world to the activities of these groups and parties which favor a preventive war against Italy and Germany, and none the less opportunely he made clear that Germany is not letting herself be chloroformed and, it is noted in Rome, neither is Italy."

"Responsible Roman circles point out that mongers of a preventive war now are late. In their blind hate they may still dream of a preventive war but attempting it would mean for them a supreme risk."

8 States Join in Search for Slayer of Young New York Girl

SCANT CLUES LEFT IN HUNT FOR MURDERER

LARCHMONT, N. Y. (AP)—An eight-state alarm for a blood-stained motorcar was broadcast by police today in their quest of the slayer of 17-year-old Mary Imelda Coyle, red-haired parochial school graduate, whose budgeoned and ravished body was found early yesterday behind a movie theater.

Westchester county authorities, organizing the most intensive search since the kidnap-slaying of 12-year-old Peter Levine last spring, were balked by a paucity of clues.

These possibilities for identification of the attacker stood out:

1. The voice of the killer, who choked off Mary's desperate cries for help, might again be recognized by a woman who heard a girl's screams at 1:30 a. m.
2. Between 10 and 15 strands of brown hair, each about four inches long and without the reddish tint characterized by that of the victim, were found clutched in her hand.
3. She was slain with a blunt instrument such as a ball-headed hammer, with which the killer inflicted from five to eight fractures of the skull. A search for the weapon in the hope of finding fingerprints was started.
4. Absence of blood under the body supported a police theory that the crime was committed elsewhere and the body dragged to the vacant lot. Bloodstains led 30 feet to a back road where fresh tire marks were visible.
5. The girl's maroon beret and brown cloth coat with puffed sleeves, which she wore on setting out to attend church services on the night of the slaying, were missing.

Mary, pledged to become a nun, was believed by police to have met her death at the hands of someone she knew and trusted. Police said they were certain she would not have accepted an invitation from a stranger to enter his car. She was quiet, studious, and never went out with boys.

Authorities pinned some hope of identifying the killer by his voice on Mrs. Mortimer Hersh, whose home is about a mile from the Coyle's houseboat home on the way from New Rochelle to Larchmont. She told of being awakened about 1:30 a. m. yesterday by a girl's cries of distress.

JURY QUIZZES STENOGRAPHER OF SHERIFF

county offices, containing defamatory statements about several persons.

Presiding Superior Judge James L. Allen, who impeached the grand jury and later reported he had received death threats, did not return to the courthouse yesterday afternoon. He was first missed yesterday morning when he failed to appear for jury trial scheduled in his court.

JUDGE RESTS
It was reported late yesterday, however, that the jurist had left town for several days for a rest. He and Mrs. Allen had been under a continual strain, he said, because of threatening telephone calls which were climaxed last Thursday night when a crude "bomb" was planted in the car of one of his detectives outside his home.

The sheriff's office had made no arrests on criminal conspiracy warrants issued after Dist. Atty. W. F. Menton filed felony charges Monday against printers and distributors of the pamphlet, but it was understood some of the men were preparing to surrender and post the $1000 bond required.

Preliminary hearing of criminal libel charges filed in Fullerton justice court against the same men had been scheduled for this afternoon, but it was understood those charges would be dismissed since they are duplicated in the complaint. Menton filed with Justice of the Peace Kenneth Morrison on Monday.

NO SHORTAGE OF FRUIT SEEN

SACRAMENTO (AP)—There isn't going to be a shortage of fruit in California this year, the state crop service announced today.

Forecasts of crops included 7,011,000 bushels of apples; 1,920,000 boxes of grapefruit; 17,640,000 boxes of oranges; 2,322,000 tons of all types of grapes; 323,000 tons of clingstone peaches; 179,000 tons of freestone peaches; 266,000 tons of pears, and 277,000 tons of dried prunes.

Nuts won't be exactly scarce, the service estimated there would be 12,100 tons of almonds and 42,000 tons of walnuts. Reports showed figs at 80 per cent of a full crop and olives, 74 per cent.

So, where two or three are gathered together, I naturally conclude that it is a Community Chest solicitation. They brought the issue right up to my front door last night.

Met a fellow who said he couldn't quite understand why a man had to go to Detroit to get a car, when he wasn't able to get one here.

And then there was the fellow who was being "kidded" because his picture appeared in the paper giving the other fellow's money away.

Speaker at a service club said the equilibrium of nations was the common people, whose influence swung between the ultra conservatives and the rabid radicals. It was this force which kept the world equalized, and it must have been a potent force as Lincoln said God thought a great deal of them, as he made so many of them.

POLICE RADIO SETS ALTERED

Radio transmitters in several dozen Orange county police and sheriff's cars were undergoing a slight wavelength operation today, as Uncle Sam ordered changes which will keep local stations from being bothered with calls from Slippery Rock and Great Neck.

Two-way transmission between patrol cars and their bases has been hampered by interference from transmitters in other districts, wavelengths having been assigned helter-skelter. With fall coming on and reception therefore interference—becoming more efficient, the government decided on a reshuffle.

W. E. Whiteman, chief operator of KGHX, central police radio station atop the county jail, said his staff was beginning the change-over today in preparation for the nationwide switch at 3 a. m. tomorrow. Car transmitters in Orange and San Diego counties will be changed from 33.1 kilocycles to 33.780 kilocycles.

L. A. WARMS UP
LOS ANGELES (AP)—After several days of cool weather, the temperature here mounted to 85 degrees before noon today, nine degrees above normal.

Almost two-thirds of women office workers are between the ages of 20 and 30.

CHEST DRIVE NEAR ITS HALF WAY MARK

Audit of returns on the second day of the Community Chest campaign showed 42% of quota achieved yesterday noon by volunteer workers in the charity and welfare appeal.

Today's report luncheon featured workers in the Establishment division of the campaign and a large group of representatives from larger business and industrial concerns were present. Thursday will be "Public Employee's day" at the luncheon meeting, and leaders in the various public offices and departments are striving to achieve their full quotas by Thursday noon, according to Campaign Chairman Orlyn N. Robertson.

Additions to the honor roll of 100% concerns yesterday were: E. J. MacMullen Co., J. W. McCain, chairman; R. A. Tiernan Type-writer Co., Bill Fernandez, chairman; Santa Ana Valley hospital, Miss Mary Ford and Dr. G. Emmett Raitt, chairman.

Captains and lieutenants in the residential divisions reporting 100% of quota were: Mrs. Orlyn Robertson, Mrs. Blanche Vandermast and Mrs. E. S. Gilbert, Mrs. Jessie E. White, Esther Williams, Mrs. J. C. Jardiner, Mrs. D. J. Hassett, Mrs. E. Ashland.

Schools reporting 100% from teachers and other employees were as follows: Delhi, Mrs. M. Fanny Bragg; Franklin, Mrs. Marjorie Dudley; Fremont, Mrs. Edith Gilbert; Hoover, Miss Isabel Lindsay; Lincoln and Logan, Miss Henrietta Horre; McKinley, Miss Mary Andrews; Roosevelt, Miss Verna Wells; Wilson, Miss Johanne Eilers; Junior college, D. K. Hammond.

Results by department at yesterday's report luncheon were: Advance gifts, Rex Kennedy, chairman, quota $16,500, reported $6,900, 42%; Central division, R. Carson Smith, chairman, quota $6,000, reported $2904, 48%; Establishments division, Davis E. Carmichael, chairman, quota $4000, reported $3657.11, 91%; Business division, John A. Henderson, chairman, quota $2000, reported $679.50, 33.7%; Schools, Frank H. Henderson, chairman, quota $2500, reported $1392, 55.7%; county and state, Maurice Enderle, chairman, quota $800, reported $300.50, 40%; Residential division No. 1, Mrs. W. Rutan, Colonel, quota $1000, reported $422.35, 42%; Res. division No. 2, Mrs. W. H. Spurgeon, Jr., Colonel, quota $1200, reported, $288.50, 24%; Res. div. No. 3, Mrs. Ray Adkinson, Colonel, quota $800, reported $217.40, 36.3%; Res. div. No. 4, Mrs. C. F. Smith, Colonel, quota $500, reported $212, 42.5%.

DEATH TAKES LORRIE MORRIS

A resident of the city for the past 53 years, Mrs. Lorrie C. Morris died suddenly yesterday from a heart attack. She resided at 812 East First street, and was 68 years of age at the time of her death.

Mrs. Morris leaves her husband, Earl L. Morris and a son, L. C. Morris of Los Angeles. She is also survived by a niece, Mrs. Marion H. Bemis of Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Morris was a member of the First Baptist church, and the Rev. Harry Owings will officiate at the services which will be announced later by Smith and Tutthill.

15 Orange County Singers To Be In Capital Concert

Fifteen Orange county singers will take part in a sacred concert in Sacramento Nov. 13, as the opening feature of the annual convention of the California Farm Bureau federation.

The entire chorus, expected to reach 400 in number, will be directed by Frank Pierce, former Orange county resident.

The local farm bureau chorus, from which the 15 singers will be selected for the Sacramento concert, has been practicing for several weeks and will appear at various events in the county during the year. The mixed chorus now has reached 50 in number, and is directed by L. M. Sharpless of Fullerton.

4 INJURED AS AUTO HITS POLE NEAR ANAHEIM

Four persons were injured, none seriously, when an automobile driven by Alvin Griffen, 30, of 1809 1/2 West Eighth, crashed into a telephone pole three miles west of Anaheim, the California Highway patrol reported today.

The injured were Griffen, who received abrasions about the face; Willie Cockran, 38, Fullerton, given emergency treatment and released; Andrew Everett, 21, South Oak street; and Monroe Everett, 34, same address, who suffered lacerations.

All were treated at the Orange county hospital.

One person was injured last night when automobiles driven by Paul Gurnsey Stevens, 66, Pasadena, and Virginia Rue Tully, 32, Buena Park, collided at the intersection of Manchester boulevard and Grand street at Buena Park, officers reported.

NEW JAP ARMY CANTON-BOUND

which the Japanese landed. Some, however, thought it likely the defenders were waiting until the Japanese were out of the protective range of their naval guns, under whose heavy shelling the landing was effected.

U. S. WARNED
TOKYO (AP)—The Japanese government today urged the United States and other powers to "refrain as far as possible from moving troops, warships and aircraft in south China" in view of the landing of a Japanese expedition, presumably for a drive on Canton.

Notes were sent to the Tokyo embassies of the principal powers asking for cooperation in preventing incidents in connection with the south China campaign.

TOKYO "REMINDED"
LONDON (AP)—With Japanese forces landed in south China for a drive on Canton, the British government today let it be known that Japan had been "reminded" that any damage to British interests in south China may involve "risks for Anglo-Japanese relations."

A source close to the government said that Sir Robert Leslie Craigie, ambassador to Japan, had delivered "a reminder" to the Tokyo foreign office on this subject within the last few days.

BOARD TURNS DOWN ORANGE'S $10,000 PLEA

Threatened legal action by the city of Orange to collect from the county for 14 years' undiscovered use of the Orange sewer line by the county hospital blew up a storm of indignation in county supervisors' meeting yesterday.

"They can't do that," said Supervisor N. E. West. "Let's have the district attorney sue them for damages. Let's have him file suit against all the cities in the out-fall sewer district. Let's order the sewer line stopped and removed immediately."

"Can't I stop them from working on Verano road?" asked Supervisor John Mitchell. "They came in there without a permit from me and started working on the sewer line. They even kept me out of my own place for three days."

"We don't owe them money—the outfall sewer district owes us $14,000 for unauthorized use of our roads for a right-of-way," declared West.

The flurry started when the city of Orange, owner of a branch line to the outfall sewer, discovered last year that the county hospital had been dumping sewage into its line since 1924, unknown to the city or the outfall sewer district. Supervisor Harry Riley has had many conferences with city officials; and this year's county budget contained an item for reimbursement of the city—which pays on a gallonage basis and thus was overcharged because of the hospital's use of the sewer.

That item was slashed out of the budget, however, and City Atty. Gordon X. Richmond of Orange filed a demand that the county stop using the sewer line and a claim for $10,655.96, preparatory to a suit to determine rights of both parties.

With Mitchell, who for months has been complaining to the board about the damaged state of the sewer line, demanding that repair work be stopped immediately, Chairman Willard Smith stepped in.

Let's find out what our rights are," he said, "before we go off half-cocked."

Upshot of the discussion was that Deputy Dist. Atty. J. E. Walker will take Riley's report on the situation, filed yesterday with the board, and prepare an opinion for Saturday on where the county and Orange stand.

DRIVE STARTED
HERE TO BEAT
BILL NO. 1

Formation of an Orange county committee to fight initiative proposition No. 1 on the November ballot is being completed this week, it was announced today by E. D. Maurice, secretary of the program committee of the organization.

The committee will include representatives from all employee groups, and will be supported by those interests that realize the large corporations and special interests are sponsors of the proposition, Maurice said.

Headquarters have been opened at 413 West Fourth street, where educational meetings will be held daily at 2:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Maurice said the meetings will be open to the public for the purpose of acquainting them with the provisions of proposition No. 1, and the effect its passage would have upon business in California.

The proposed law has been termed by opponents as "the law which will destroy California labor." Opponents claim the purpose of the proposed law is the destruction of every labor organization in the state of California.

Officers of the local committee will be announced in a few days, Maurice said.

Serve 90 Days

SALINAS, Calif. (AP)—Edwin J. Tierney, 40, who identified himself as a Hollywood dance director, was under sentence of 90 days in the Monterey county jail today after he pleaded guilty to a worthless check charge. Sentence was passed yesterday by Superior Judge H. G. Jorgensen.

LOITERER ARRESTED
Reported by Garden Grove residents as having been loitering around that community, John Davis, 65-year-old transient, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriffs John Gilmore and Jim Musick and booked in the county jail on a vagrancy charge.

Police News

Jim Fite, 2011 Halladay, reported to police yesterday that he had lost a wrist watch in Riverside. Santa Ana police asked Riverside officers to look for the watch.

The percentage of arrests of people under 21 years of age is increasing in London.

DONALD BUTTON'S
"Laurel Leaves"

PASTEL
May I have the honor of presenting to you . . .
Marion Cunningham, San Francisco painter and commentator upon painting and sculpture for Coast magazine . . .

Whose "little pictures," as pert and smart as their diminutive creator, are to grace the Library walls these next two weeks.

Mrs. Cunningham, Alfred Frankenstein has said in the San Francisco Chronicle, brings to pastel (her medium) a rightful use to a much-abused means of expression.

Save for an occasional abstraction and a chance effect in landscape, pastel in Southern California is more than likely to be a wan characterless expression.

Shorn of vitality, portraying a static scene, it is altogether lacking in dynamic—which is the wherewithal of contemporary painting.

It is, with considerable relief, that we come to this forceful, this "infinite space within a little room" style which is entirely Marion Cunningham's own.

It has been a long time since I have wanted to pick up a series of pictures, one after the other, and peer into them. It may be the clever frames, but I am inclined to think the depth of emotional content to be found in them causes this response.

Marion Cunningham, in her examination of the arts, is first of all in search of lyricism which is, to her, an emotional emotive, or dynamic.

A technique, or style, she says, can be perfected or acquired; technical perfectionists are made, not born. But a driving force, or that which transcends technique, is the quality which makes a painting worthwhile and with a chance to go down through the centuries.

Of the pictures at the library, a series of "projections," post-reading-Danz, will probably have the most interest for local lookers.

On the border of recognizable objectivity, they are so cleverly just out of reach of objective status that they are, in truth, become "some."

The refinement that marks the projections is evident in pictures with objective status. Nothing is

J. C. STUDENTS
PICNIC IN PARK

Hundreds of Santa Ana Junior college students gathered at Irvine park last night for their annual all-college fall picnic. Miss Phyllis Kogler, social commissioner was in charge.

Miss Kogler was assisted in preparations by the nine men's and women's service clubs. They include the Spinners, Las Gitanis, Las Meninas, Moavs, Piloteers, Bachelors, Luccaneers, Junior Lions, and Los Gauchos.

Dancing was held in the pavilion after the dinner. Earlier in the afternoon the car-less boat race was held, as well as the soph-frosh indoor game.

there that is not needed to make the statement.

In this library show we have the genesis of a generating problem for a painter. I am so completely charmed with its delicacy and sensitivity as to say that Marion Cunningham is surely to be regarded as one of our important painters.

Like a feather upon a little hat—Marion Cunningham's painting makes your heart to sing!

SONG
If you have not already done so—
Save next Monday night for Pinza's concert!

Opening the Orange county concert course series, it is another of those truly remarkable events brought to Orange county by a progressive cultural citizenry.

It is not often a Pinza sings in a county-seat town. Few cities of 36,000 population in these United States ever hear a Pinza upon their native heath.

I would urge you strongly to take advantage of this concert series. It is your benefit, for which you give little in return.

Pinza sings Monday night! Be there!

CLASS
Moving last week of the weekly sketch class under the direction of Robert Gilbert from cramped quarters in Lathrop evening school to a room of atelier-proportions in the old print shop on the high school grounds makes this night-school class most opportune.

Lighting conditions are as satisfactory as you will find in most after-dark sketch gatherings.

There is space for a large group to work together, to exchange thoughts and opinions, and to grow in artistic stature from these weekly gatherings.

Draughtsmanship is a crying need in contemporary painting.

Facilities are given Santa Anans to remedy this unfortunate situation.

So—
Bring your drawing board and come tomorrow night to the old high school print shop! It is guaranteed to be a positive antidote for boredom, and you might have as much fun as I do.

I'll be there! Will you?

HENRY BALDWIN
SEES GAIN IN AUTO BUSINESS

Confidence that the automobile industry will experience a definite upswing in business during 1939 was expressed today by Henry A. Baldwin.

Mr. Baldwin returned from a trip to Los Angeles where he previewed the new 1939 De Soto, stated that De Soto dealers throughout this section of the country are very enthusiastic about prospects for the coming year.

"The general feeling expressed at the meeting," Mr. Baldwin said, "was that business, steadily on the upgrade for the past few months, will continue to get better."

"The automobile dealers represented believed that people in general have more confidence in the future now and are more willing to spend than at any other time during the last 12 months. De Soto, with its beautiful 1939 car, soon to be announced, is prepared to take full advantage of this growing market."

"When prices of the new De Soto models are announced, American motorists will readily see what the industry has accomplished this year in creating greater values than ever before. As a direct stimulus to new car sales, auto manufacturers have gone to unusual expense to provide greater 'eye' appeal and important new engineering features for more comfort and luxury."

$30 Thursday Plan
Rapped By Haight

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Warning that the $30-a-week pension plan is "unconstitutional, economically unsound and would be ruinous if adopted," Raymond L. Haight, gubernatorial candidate on the Progressive party ticket, promised today he would seek, if elected, the creation of a commission to investigate various pension and money reform proposals.

NAHANT, Mass. (AP)—Sally Clark, sister-in-law of John Roosevelt, youngest son of the President, will give up her singing career to marry George X. McClenahan of New York on Dec. 3, instead of Jan. 6, the date previously planned, Sally's mother, Mrs. F. Haven Clark, announced today.

"They just decided not to wait," Mrs. Clark said.

TOWNSEND
NEWS, VIEWS

By WAUTER R. ROBB

(This column deals with Townsend news and views. Any opinions which are expressed herein are not necessarily those of The Journal.)

The National Administration Youth band, under the direction of T. Dunstan Collins, will give a concert in front of Santa Ana Townsend hall at 7 o'clock next Saturday night, at 509 West Fourth street. This will be a prelude to the Townsend mass meeting, which will begin at 7:30 inside the hall. This band played at the Los Angeles county fair Saturday afternoon, Oct. 1, in the large Agricultural building, before a large audience. High praise was given its conductor because they played at the Artesia annual Fall Festival. Last Thursday evening, Oct. 6, they gave a concert in Birch park. In the Anaheim Halloween parade the band will be in the line of march, and on Armistice day, Nov. 11, in the city of Orange, it will play in the Armistice day parade.

Collins is included among the authorized instructors connected with the adult educational program of the Santa Ana schools. From the California state department of education he carries Permit No. 1872 authorizing him to teach as a band director. The band studio is located at 411½ West Fourth street, Santa Ana, and boys over 15 years of age wanting free training and the opportunity of playing with this band are invited to call at the studio any week day between 9 and 10 a. m., and in the afternoons between 12:30 and 2:30 p. m. From this write-up it can be inferred that the band concert to be given before the hall Saturday night will be well worth going early enough to hear.

Ida A. Freeman, president of the Anaheim Club No. 1, writes that the club will meet at 7:30 tomorrow evening in the Townsend club building, at 224 East Center street. A short business meeting will be held, and then Dr. F. M. Carrigan of Los Angeles will speak. Dr. Carrigan is a fine speaker, as most of the Orange county Townsends know. Barbara Oelke, youthful musician of Anaheim, who recently joined the club, will entertain with a short musical program. This club is entering enthusiastically into the new membership drive, and as a result is getting many new members. All the Orange county Townsend clubs should do the same thing.

A. D. Marshall, president of the Huntington Beach Club No. 1, writes that his club will not meet tomorrow evening for the reason that the Christian church will be giving a dinner in Memorial Hall, and the Townsends will be attending the dinner. Rev. J. G. Hurst, pastor of the church, has been very friendly to the Townsend club, and tomorrow night the kindness will be repaid by the Townsends by the giving of their patronage to the dinner of the church.

Santa Ana Club No. 3 is meeting at 7:30 tomorrow night in Townsend hall for a business meeting, with Phillip S. Doolittle as the officiating officer in charge. Have you noticed how clean and orderly J. W. Wood, custodian of Santa Ana Townsend hall, keeps the building? Have you told him how much you appreciate his efforts? And what do you think of the fine posters and advertising that he prepares in advertising our mass meetings and club meetings which are held in the hall? If you haven't told him of your appreciation, then why not do so?

W. F. Rockwell, who writes splendid articles for the Townsend cause, has rendered another fine service for the Townsend movement. He has prepared maps for every one of the 71 precincts of Santa Ana city for use by the precinct workers' captains. These maps will be very helpful in doing campaign work, and will be much appreciated by those doing precinct work.

Frank Philbrook of Club No. 11 has consented to take charge of Ward No. 5 in Santa Ana in getting precinct workers and mapping out their territories for them. He will be asking you to help him in this work, and you are requested to please assist him.

The Johnson for Congress campaign committee met Monday evening in Danigers' cafe, in Santa Ana, in a business session. Twenty people were present from over the district, and plans were completed for more intensive campaign efforts. The next meeting will be held in Redlands, on Oct. 25.

Tomorrow evening at 7:30 p. m., in the Laguna Beach Grammar school auditorium, at Park and Manzanita streets, a Republican rally boosting the candidacy of Mayor Johnson of San Bernardino and Raymond G. Best, prominent attorney of Riverside, will be the speakers. This will not be a Townsend meeting, but will be conducted in the interest of a Townsend endorsed candidate to congress from the 19th district. Hence Townsends should find the meeting congenial. The election of Mayor C. T. Johnson can only be accomplished by a coalition of effort on the part of Townsends, Republicans and Jeffersonian Democrats.

Neither of these groups could elect Johnson without the help of the others, and so it is essential to the interests of Townsends that they play ball with the other groups and that they assume the same attitude toward us. It is to the mutual interest of all that we constantly keep that fact in mind.

Boxing Gloves for Grammar Schools?

SACRAMENTO. (AP)—City school authorities investigated today to determine how an order for boxing gloves happened to get on a list of supplies for grammar schools.

They said last night, when the item was discovered by the school board, it may have occurred through a clerical error. The board withheld action after one of its members, Mrs. George McCormack, declared:

"It seems to me that boxing gloves are not just the things for boys of grammar school age to be playing with. That's not good at all."

SAVING CENTER
TO BE OPENED
FRIDAY MORN

Plans for the opening of the Santa Ana Saving center—new West Fourth street food market—were being completed today.

Doors of the new market will swing open officially Friday morning, with an amateur contest for youngsters highlighting the opening ceremony. The new market is located at the corner of West Fourth and Ross streets.

Tyouts of the amateur contests will be held Friday afternoon and evening and Saturday afternoon, with the finals scheduled for Saturday evening.

C. R. Sackerson, manager of the new market, announced that elaborate plans are being made for the contest. "If you can sing, dance, or play an instrument," Sackerson announced, "we want you in this amateur contest."

Aside from the amateur show, there will be a balloon blowing contest, pie eating contest, milk drinking contest, and plenty of free candy and ice cream for the youngsters.

As the Savings Center opens for business, Santa Ana will be provided with another individually owned food market.

MOTHER WINS
DIVORCE AND BABY CUSTODY

Mrs. Ellen Eunice Jeffrey today was winner in her husband's superior court divorce suit, and had won custody of her two-month-old baby as another child was given to her mother to supervise.

Superior Judge H. G. Ames late yesterday denied the suit of Warner Alexander Jeffrey, young musician, on grounds he had lived with his wife since filing the suit late last year. He granted Mrs. Jeffrey a divorce on her cross-complaint, which charged the husband with cruelty.

Judge Ames declined to rule on legitimacy of the baby, which Jeffrey testified his wife had said was not his. Jeffrey must pay $25 a month for support of the children. Trial of the case, with Lloyd Verry representing Jeffrey and W. P. Webb appearing as attorney for the wife, took a day and a half.

Crimes in London in 1937 numbered 92,192, an increase over the 1936 total of 83,777.

It takes this much gasoline to go a mile in low gear...

And this much
to go a mile in second...

But only this much to go a mile in high....

In stop and go,
a mile S-T-R-E-T-C-H-E-S

In low and second, your engine makes up to 3 times as many revolutions as in high—uses 3 times as much gasoline

STOP-AND-GO driving fools your speedometer—while your car is going a mile, your engine may go the equivalent of two.

The number of extra revolutions your engine makes depends on how many times you stop and start—how much of your driving is in low and second gears.

Nowadays, no matter where you drive in town or country, you can't avoid stop-and-go. But you can do something about its cost.

Shell engineers found that getting away from a traffic stop can waste enough "undigested" gasoline to carry you 1/5 of a mile.

To cut this costly waste, they rearranged the chemical structure of gasoline. They make every drop of Super-Shell "motor digestible" under all driving conditions.

You can save on driving costs by the regular use of Super-Shell. Try it.

I Just Found Out About Orange County

By BOB SWANSON

Patrol Boat

A sleek "ocean greyhound" which will keep a constant watch on Orange county's coastline during coming years is now being completed at Newport.

It is the Orange County Harbor district's first patrol boat, and it's almost ready for its official immersion in the salty waters of Newport Bay.

Virtually completed, the boat has won the acclaim of boat lovers in the harbor district, who declare it is by far the best patrol boat along the Southern California coast.

Under the watchful eye of Harbormaster Bouchey, the boat entered the water for the first time last Saturday for a preliminary launching. The official ceremony, when the whole bay district gathers to watch its new pride and joy begin operation, is scheduled for later this week.

When taken out into the choppy waters of the sea last Saturday during its initial run, the patrol boat was put to every test known—just to be sure there were no structural weaknesses or defects.

The boat was steered against the waves, run with the waves and in the trough of the waves. Officials claimed it passed the test perfectly.

The new "super" ship will be used for patrolling the Newport-Balboa harbor, where several million dollars' worth of ships make their home. It will also be used for rescue work outside the harbor, and as a sea-going fire wagon.

If ever a boat catches afire along the county's coastline, the patrol boat will speed directly to the scene to fight the flames. The fire apparatus includes fire pumps which have a pumping capacity of 250 gallons per minute, and other fire extinguishing equipment.

The boat will be the first patrol boat the county harbor district has ever had. In the past, all patrol work in the harbor was done by Harbormaster Bouchey's small speedboat. The small boat could be used for patrol work in the harbor without difficulty, but on rough days it could not put out to sea for duty along the coastline.

The new boat will be docked at the harbormaster's office, and will be used for patrol work inside the harbor as well as outside in any kind of sea, smooth or rough.

Built to withstand heavy pounding, the patrol boat is 34 feet long and has a 10-foot beam. It weighs five tons, will have an estimated top speed of about 30 miles per hour. It will be powered by two 150-horsepower Chrysler motors.

Because of its weight and power, the patrol boat will be able to tow disabled craft to shore, besides rescuing people aboard, or putting out fires.

The craft will have a 24-inch draft; that is, the hull will be in the water to a depth of 24 inches.

Officials of the Peyton boat-building company, which constructed the craft, say the ship will probably cruise or patrol at about 12 miles per hour, burning about four gallons of gasoline an hour. Gas consumption jumps, though, when the speed is increased.

Started July 15, the boat has been under construction at the Peyton landing on Coast boulevard for nearly three months. From four to five men have been working steadily on the job.

There are two bunks in the cabin for use of patrolmen, and also for emergency use in bringing injured persons ashore. There is a galley for preparing meals, and lockers for equipment under the deck.

The boat will be linked to its headquarters by ship-to-shore telephone, according to the boat builders. This will permit the harbormaster to call the boat and direct it to an exact point somewhere along the coast where an accident has occurred, or where a ship is on fire, or for any other cause.

Likewise, men on the boat will be able, for example, to telephone shore, notify an ambulance and doctor to be at such-and-such a place to receive an injured person.

The ship-to-shore telephone message goes by short-wave radio to the special exchange at San Pedro, is then connected with the regular Bell telephone system. A message could thus be sent from the boat to any point in the country, it is pointed out. Anyone on land would also be able to call the ship, if necessary.

The boat will also be equipped with a pulmotor to resuscitate drowning victims. It will have a long range searchlight which will cast a beam of light for one mile. The light is 10 inches in diameter. Naturally, this is a siren.

The blue-grey craft was built at a contract price of $6500, will cost $8500 fully equipped, officials say. Here, for example, are some of the materials going into the boat: lumber costing $700; "hardware," metal work and fixtures costing $700; engines costing $2850; two-way radio totaling some $350; a compass valued at $87; a barometer costing some $40 or $50.

Opponents of Fullerton City Hall Site Appeal Decision

STAKES DRIVEN FOR BUILDING; PLANS RUSHED

FULLERTON.—While City Engineer Herman Hillscher drove stakes for location of the new city hall, plans for the building were threatened today with another setback as opponents of its location appealed to a higher court for a referendum election.

Opponents of the $25,050 site bought by the city council announced through their attorneys, Sam Collins and Harold McCabe, that they would appeal to the fourth district court of appeal from the judgment of Superior Judge H. G. Ames, who last Friday threw out of court their petition for a writ of mandate against City Clerk Fred C. Hezmalhalch.

Judge Ames held that the referendum petition, which Hezmalhalch failed to certify as sufficient for calling an election, dealt with two separate sets of orders by the city council—one buying the property and the other designating it as a city hall site—and hence could not be joined in a single referendum petition.

He decided this in sustaining, without leave for the petitioners to amend their complaint, a demurrer or legal objection to the suit's sufficiency filed by Lloyd Verry, assistant city attorney, and George Holden, associate counsel for the city.

Meanwhile Mayor T. K. Gowen announced that WPA officials have agreed to speed up action on the hoped-for approval of the city hall project. The city council, acting on the strength of Judge Ames' decision, ordered a survey of the property.

Councilmen feared the project might be held up 60 to 90 days as the result of the appeal, since notices of the legal action were served on WPA officials.

McCabe said he planned a request to the appellate court for an early hearing on the matter on the basis that the suit was of wide public interest.

Costa Mesa.—Hailed as an outstanding success in every respect, the Flower and Antique show, held this week under the joint sponsorship of the Costa Mesa Garden club and Ladies' aid, drew crowds throughout the day.

Other displays included fall flowers, potted plants, decorated gourds, pottery, cacti, table arrangements, vegetables and squashes. No prizes were awarded, the show being primarily to demonstrate what Costa Mesa is capable of producing.

The hall was decorated in autumn foliage and paintings by local artists, these including Mrs. George McMillan, Mrs. L. B. Smalley and the late Francis Patrick Myers.

In the fancywork and antique division, many items past 150 years of age were entered, these including hand-woven coverlets, silver and pewter ware, dress goods, crocheting and knitting.

A candy sale and luncheon was given by the Ladies' aid. Mrs. H. B. McMurtry was general chairman of the show.

COSTA MESA.—The high school league met Sunday night at the home of Journey and Brown, Fullerton automobile dealers, is recuperating from severe injuries sustained in an accident Monday night.

Journey suffered a fractured right leg and cuts and bruises when struck by an automobile driven by Bert Davis of Fullerton. According to police reports, Journey was walking across Spadra road at the time of the accident, but was not in a pedestrian lane. He was rushed to Fullerton General hospital.

Costa Mesa League Opens Fall Season

COSTA MESA.—The Young People's League of Community church gathered this week at its first party of the season, which was held in the social hall. The evening's program, which was in charge of Grace Daughenbaugh and Luther Abrams, included series of games and novelties. The Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Abbe, temporary counselors, were present.

Miss Frances Liles will discuss arrangement of living room furniture, it was announced by Mrs. A. A. Fischer, chairman.

DELEGATES TO BUENA PARK MEET NAMED

COSTA MESA.—Friday Afternoon club members met this week in the first social session of the new club year. During the brief business meeting, delegates were named to the mid-year convention, to be held at Buena Park, Oct. 27. These will be Mesdames W. B. Mellott, L. R. Daughenbaugh, Glenn Cheeseman and M. J. Fickas, alternates to be Mesdames F. P. Wells, George Ragan, W. G. Walker and L. Bissett.

Announcement was made that the bridge section will meet Oct. 19 for a dessert course at 12:30 p. m., after which the afternoon will be passed at cards. Mrs. George Healey will be chairman. The club garden section will meet Friday at 2 o'clock in the sunroom of the clubhouse. Mrs. H. Thayer and Mrs. R. S. Erbe being hostesses.

At the close of the business meeting, Hostesses Alice Flumerfelt, Mrs. C. A. Custer and Mrs. R. S. Erbe led the members in a series of "get-acquainted" songs and games. A number of the older club members also recounted amusing anecdotes of the early club history. Dessert and coffee was served.

'BAD TASTE PARTY' HELD

GARDEN GROVE.—The Queen Esther society turned its annual dues paying meeting Monday evening into quite the reverse of what had been planned "a bad taste party," by wearing hard times costumes and conducting the meeting backwards. The supper usually served before the meeting came last this time with Jean Holt and Betty Smith serving as hostesses.

An impromptu program included vocal solos by Edna Hebestreit with Sadie Campi at the piano and the Queen Esther society playing the accompaniment. Sadie also conducted the lesson period and Jean Holt led the devotion. Also present were Winona Christensen, Betty Rae Solter, Janet Smiley, Betty Ater, Beatrice Leno, Margaret Long, Lena Warner, L. Miss Frances Liles will discuss arrangement of living room furniture, it was announced by Mrs. A. A. Fischer, chairman.

'Jitterbug Contest' Will Be Innovation of Hallowe'en Program in Anaheim Oct. 28

ANAHEIM.—A "jitterbug contest" was announced today as an innovation in the annual Halloween celebration to be held here Oct. 28.

Contacts have been made with leading dance pavilions of the county, the celebration committee announced today, to aid in obtaining a group of the county's best "jitterbugs" to compete for the championship of Orange county. Cash prizes and a trophy will go to winning couples.

Entries are continuing to come in from the horse show to be held in the city park during the afternoon, with most of the Southernland's leading horsemen planning to have their animals on display.

Climax of the one-day celebration is the parade, which will start at 7 p. m. Nearly 200 floats, cars, musical organizations and riding and marching units have been entered.

HONOR PAID O. E. S. LEADERS

GARDEN GROVE.—Officers of the Garden Grove Eastern Star chapter joined in honoring their worthy matron and patron, Mrs. Clara and Norman Bryan with a dinner bridge, Monday evening, the party being held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bryan. Dahlias from the gardens of Mrs. Mabel Williams decorated rooms of the home, with those of the pompon variety being used to center the card tables during the dinner hour.

With the awarding of prizes for the bridge games to Mrs. Jennie Shippe and J. A. Knapp for high and Mrs. J. A. Knapp and Jack Jentges for low scores, Mrs. Emma Henry on behalf of the officers presented the honor guests with a linen tablecloth and 12 napkins.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bryan, the deputy grand matron of the 60th district, Mrs. Jennie Shippe and George Shippe of Santa Ana, Mr. and Mrs. A. Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jentges, Misses Frances Hammon and Dorothy Knap, Mesdames Mabel Williams, Mertie Flumen, Letty Lee Robbins, Pauline Hammon, Helen Newsom, Ethel Schauer, Elizabeth Collins, Mae Stroud, Bertha Collins, Esther Barker and Lucille Walker.

Those participating were Mesdames George Simpson, Sam Benny, E. A. Randall, Lottie Leno, Margaret Long, Lena Warner, L. R. Daughenbaugh, Agness Rustad, E. C. Pickering, B. Smith, Louvina Moore, Bess Beach, Harry Clark, R. S. Erbe, Vernon Coyner, W. H. Hutchinson, H. B. McMurtry, H. D. Bomboy, C. E. Boone, J. C. Limbert, W. I. Rountree, L. O. Bement and the honoree.

W. R. C. Members In New Uniforms

COSTA MESA.—Members of the Costa Mesa Women's Relief corps appeared in their new uniforms for the first time at this week's meeting. The next meeting is scheduled for Oct. 19 at the home of Mrs. Harry W. Wright.

Members present included Mesdames Ica Clark, Alice King, Clara McMurtry, Margaret Dean, Clara Bellou, Pearl Backus, Alvina Ober, Clara Rollins, Phoebe Mortimer, Iva Cole, Blanche Kajawa, Ida Baker and Margaret Long.

Marian Martin Pattern

COMPLETE BABY-DOLL WARDROBE!

Pattern 9799

Discovered—the perfect wardrobe for that almost human doll, the Dy-Dee Baby! All these tiny garments come from Pattern 9799 (and where is the youngster that won't be thrilled with them!)—a dainty Coat with matching bonnet, a sweet lace-trimmed Dress, a Snuggly-Lunacy Bag, and a Sun-Suit gay with ric-rac braid. Marian Martin's Sew-Cart makes the task simple enough for a small girl to tackle as her first sewing. Indeed, it's as much fun to stitch up these clothes as it is to play with them. So why not present this pattern itself to those little friends for whom you won't have time to make doll togs?

Pattern 9799 may be ordered only for dolls measuring 10, 12, 14, 16 and 20 inches. For individual yardages see pattern. Send fifteen cents in coins for each Marian Martin pattern. ORANGE BAR PLEA KILLED

ORANGE.—Application of F. R. Jacobs for a license to operate a cocktail lounge here has been withdrawn, it was learned by Chief of Police George Franzen in a conference with Herman Pause, member of the state liquor commission.

Jacobs filed his withdrawal with the state board of equalization, to which he had previously made application. His action was due to protests by the ministerial union, city council and individuals.

The Orange city council had recommended to the state board of equalization that issuance of a liquor license to Jacobs be withheld on the grounds that the city did not desire establishment of a cocktail lounge or similar on-sale liquor establishment.

VISITORS FROM OAKLAND.—COSTA MESA.—Miss Evelyn Baird and Clarence Barnes of Oakland, are visiting at the home of Miss Baird's brother and sister-in-law, the H. L. Bairds of 1903 Orange avenue.

CHAPTER XII

When Teddy left Hugo and went to her cabin, she found her aunt already in bed, reading a book.

Aunt Elsie had spent the evening with Professor Turner and had found him "most agreeable." She was in a talkative mood, but Teddy was too tired to respond and, almost as soon as she climbed into bed, fell asleep.

The next morning, she was up early and, after breakfast in the cabin, left her aunt and went on deck.

She saw Hugo and Denis Graham up forward, talking to the steward. As she approached, they both turned and smiled at her, but Hugo immediately turned back to the steward. "You must answer me," he said earnestly. He reached for his wallet and drew out a bill. "Perhaps this will be an inducement."

The steward was silent for a moment, staring at the bill.

"Very well, sir," he said finally. "It was Dr. Smitting. That is all I know, sir. I'm merely following orders."

Graham handed him the bill. "What's your name?"

"Todd, sir—George Todd."

"Very well, Todd. You may go."

The man hesitated. "It would be best, sir, if Dr. Smitting did not know I told you."

"Of course," Graham smiled. "We shan't tell him our information came from you."

"Thank you, sir."

The steward left, going toward the upper deck.

GRAHAM stared after him.

"Todd," he murmured. "Well I rather like you."

"Calm little beggar," Hugo remarked. "Oh, but Teddy wonders if you look lovely this morning, my angel."

"Would you please tell me what this confab has been about?" Teddy asked him.

"We waylaid Todd on his way to deliver the instruction envelope to the captain. We had a hard time making him tell us Smitting gave it to him."

"Smitting?" probably only a small pawn in this game," Graham said quietly.

"I'm going to make him talk, though," said Hugo.

"I don't think he knows much."

COLLEGE DEAN ATTACK LAID TO GRID FAN

FULLERTON.—Charged with battery in an asserted attack on the dean of Pomona Junior college, Dale Roberts of Fullerton was arrested by Pomona officers yesterday and taken into Pomona police court.

Roberts, according to information received by Fullerton police, was one of a group of Fullerton football fans involved in an argument with the Pomona dean over admission to a junior college game at Pomona last Friday. Following the game, another argument took place over admission to a student dance.

The Pomona dean, during the argument, was said to have been struck in the face and knocked down. A license number taken by a spectator led to Roberts' arrest yesterday. He was identified by the Pomona dean, who accompanied officers to Fullerton. Roberts denied the slugging.

H. B. To Paint Name On Pier

HUNTINGTON BEACH.—Wandering aviators won't be able to mistake this city for anywhere else, Secretary William Gallienne of the chamber of commerce announced today.

On the city's 2000-foot pier, huge letters will spell out "Huntington Beach," and the sign will be easily visible thousands of feet in the air.

The letters will be painted on the pier's surface with durable paint of the type used to paint crosswalks on streets. The idea, Gallienne said, was suggested by Gladys O'Donnell, famed aviatrix.

"I don't think he knows much."

SHE wandered into the lounge, which she found deserted, and dropped into a chair.

Scarcely had she sat down, when the stewardess entered. The woman seemed strangely furtive, kept looking back over her shoulder.

Then, she sidled up to Teddy.

"I shall be doing your cabin in a few minutes," she murmured quickly, "but of the corner of her mouth. "Please be there, if you can, miss."

Before Teddy could recover from her astonishment, the woman was gone.

"What on earth could she want?" Teddy, completely mystified, wondered whether to comply with her request. Wouldn't it be wiser to keep free of any intrigue—especially from below decks?

Curiously, however, got the better of her and, in a few minutes she rose and made her way to her cabin.

The stewardess was already there, making the bed.

Teddy closed the door. "Well?" The stewardess paused in her work. "Beg pardon, miss, for asking you to come here, but I had to see you."

"What's your name?"

"Marie Galgan."

SHE was a neat, dark-haired little woman, no longer young, and she spoke in a husky sort of whisper. "Oh, but Teddy wondered if it was her natural voice or a precaution."

"Listen," Teddy repeated. "Well, miss... Marie began to speak quickly. "I have information which would be of considerable value to you."

So that was it! Teddy kept her face blank.

"How much?" she asked coldly.

DONS AND DASHES, ONE OR TWO GRID FLASHES

University of Oregon fans must attend the games to get the low-down on their club. Coach G. A. (Tex) Oliver, the former Santa Ana maestro, is a strong believer in secret practice, and chases away the many railbirds who flock to the Eugene campus. Oliver doesn't take any chances.

"Tex," who scouted Stanford's 8-0 victory over Washington State last week-end, believes Pete Fay, Stanford back, will cause his Webfoots the most trouble at Palo Alto Saturday afternoon.

Bay region critics have installed California's Golden Bears 2-1 favorites to whip their "little brothers," U. C. L. A.'s Bruins, at Berkeley Saturday.

VAUGHAN, HERSHBERGER RETURN TO CALIFORNIA

Back from the major league baseball wars, Floyd (Arky) Vaughan and Willard Hershberger of the Cincinnati Reds will spend the winter in California. Both of the former Fullerton stars had a successful season.

Hershberger stopped off in Fullerton recently for a brief visit with his sister and brother-in-law before going to Three Rivers, where his mother lives. Vaughan, who has returned to his ranch near Potter Valley in Northern California, plans to visit Fullerton this winter.

DON RIVALS WILL PLAY IN IDAHO SATURDAY

Chaffey's Panthers, who engage our Santa Ana Dons in an Armistice day struggle in the Municipal bowl, will entrain tomorrow night for Sun Valley, Idaho, for an inter-sectional game Saturday afternoon with the southern branch of the University of Idaho. It will be the first inter-sectional game for Burt Heiser's Ontario 11 since 1931 when the Panthers played Kamehameha Institute from Honolulu.

There will be a return contest with Idaho at Ontario next season. Heiser has developed a line averaging 186 pounds and a backfield averaging 168 pounds. The Chaffey J. C. squad is in high spirits after knocking over one of the Eastern conference favorites, Riverside, even if the Panther victory was only by the margin of a field goal, 2-0.

Eight of Chaffey's players were captains of their high schools. They are Ray Corn, all-Southern California end from Chaffey High; Louis Bowman, Monrovia in '35; Alvin Flannery, Monrovia in '36; Don Hershberger, halfback and captain in his junior year; Bonita; Henry Van Ginkle, Covina in '37; Lester Terry and Jack Van Beek, captains from Strathmore; and Francis Rupp, who captained a '37 championship outfit at Maricopa.

EIGHT TEAMS OPEN PLAY IN HARBOR BASKETBALL LEAGUE

COSTA MESA. —Basketball competition in the Newport Harbor Community League opened last night with eight clubs, six of them from Costa Mesa, beginning spirited quest for the 1938 championship.

Morris Crowley, who has captained the Food Basket team for the past few seasons, will play this year with the Balboa Pharmacy, which includes Joe Myers, Joe McVerners, Mel Beatty, Dick Vile and Dick Geer.

The Community Church team is comprised of Luther Abrams, Robert Long, Dick Owen, Bertren Smith, Albert Ogden and Lester Smith.

Pink's Druggists, entry of the Costa Mesa Pharmacy, will be represented by Merle Jensen, Hal Coldwell, Harry Robinson, Luke Davis, Bill Crow, John Callahan and Joe Jones, with Harold (Skeet) Long as playing manager.

Myre Service has entered the league with a strong team comprised of Emil Myre, Phil Caspell, Walter Hart, Edwin Edick, Russ Johnson and Ralph Myre. Ringfree Motor Oil is sponsoring a new club of Max Vile, Warren Collins, Leonard Collins, Dick Carlson, Don Phillips and Grant Phillips.

Sam Crawford of the Model Drug store also is sponsoring a club for the first time. His players are Ralph Irwin, Bill Tucker, George Lumel, L. Fuller, Jim Lockwood and E. Wingate.

The Casaba club has Floyd Tait, Jack Hartley, George Barnett, Paul Shafer and Leroy Shilling ready for action.

Estus Hardware will be represented by Howard Miller, Joe Harbeson, Don Truax, Floyd Jones and Will Bailey.

The games which are open to the public without charge, will be played every Tuesday night in the Newport Harbor high school gymnasium. The league was organized eight years ago.

Crouch Stops Foe In Fourth Round In Olympic Ring

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Carrying a game heart but a weak chin into the ring for his Los Angeles debut, Sol Levinson, Denver lightweight, was stopped in the fourth round by George Crouch, local favorite, last night.

Crouch had his hands full in subduing the scrappy newcomer. Levinson took the first round, lost the second on a brief knockdown, and rallied to win the third decisively.

The two gamecocks were exchanging punches furiously in the fourth when Levinson was floored for an eight-count. Crouch knocked him down again and the referee halted the fight.

It was a scheduled ten-rounder. Crouch scaled 137, Levinson, 136½.

Coaches Fight Off Over-Confidence In Trojan Drills

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—University of Southern California assistant coaches who have scouted the Washington State football games, warned the Trojans today against overconfidence in Saturday's encounter with the Cougars here.

Despite Washington State's early season defeats, the scouts warned the Trojans that Cougar Backs Callow, Angelo and Wood are dangerous ball carriers.

The Trojans came out of their win over Ohio State in good condition and pledged themselves to "keep battling with never a let-down."

Three years ago—$92,000 future—won by Marshall Field's Tintagel with Hollywood second and Jean Bart third.

Fullerton-Riverside Game Tops J. C. Card

DONS CHANGE LINEUP FOR CITRUS TEST

While Santa Ana's Dons clash with the Citrus Owls at Azusa-Glendale Friday night, the spotlight in the Eastern J. C. conference will be focused on the football game between Riverside and Fullerton in the Fullerton stadium.

Fullerton, which came from behind a 13-0 lead to defeat Pomona 19-13 in the opener last week, can gain a foothold Friday night by defeating Riverside's Bengals, who were the victims of a 2-0 upset by Chaffey.

Another defeat will virtually eliminate Jesse Mortensen's Riverside outfit from the race. Meanwhile, Coaches Bill Cook and John Ward are trying to whip their Santa Ana into form for their first conference start with Citrus. Two of the Dons' best quarterbacks, Lynn Arnett and Larry Monroy, are on the ailing list, and it is probable that Don Borden will receive the call Friday night, with Co-Capt. Larry Timken at fullback, "Chuck" Stafford and Rollo Beck at halfback. Cook said he might shift Vic Lindskog, reserve halfback, to the full position in an experiment at the Municipal bowl today.

The Dons anticipate plenty of trouble from Citrus for at least two quarters. Lack of reserve strength, which told on Al Claves' Owls in the final half, led to their 29-0 defeat from San Bernardino's powerful club last week. San Bernardino rolled up 23 points in the second half against the tired Citrus eleven.

Co-Capt. Johnny Joseph, all-conference end whose injured shoulder has responded to treatment, engaged in a light workout with the Dons yesterday, and may be ready to play part-time within the next two weeks.

Jimmy Foxx, Boston First Baseman, Is Baseball's Man-Of-The-Year

By DILLON GRAHAM
NEW YORK. (AP)—Baseball's Man-of-the-Year—the burly double-X guy, James Emory Foxx.

Apple-cheeked Jimmy, who nose-dived under a sinus attack last year to his poorest performance in a dozen years, a major league play, has topped the all-round hitting honors of the season.

The Boston Red Sox first baseman set the pace in runs batted in, with 174, led in batting averages with .349 and pushed Hank Greenberg closely in the home run derby, with 50.

His constant heavy cannonading pushed the Red Sox up from their fifth-place slot of the 1937 campaign into a second position duel with the strongly-liked Cleveland Indians.

A SURPRISE
Jimmy's comeback was one of the surprises of the season. The plump cigar-smoker from Sudersville, Md., is no spring chicken, as baseball poultry goes. He's 31 and a chap who has lived at a pretty fast clip. Some of the wise boys were reading his obituary last fall, after Foxx slumped to a mere .285 hitting mark.

Sinus had him in its grip. At times he could hardly see the ball as it sizzled toward the plate. Only two players struck out more often than did he. Baseball had seen many hitters slough off permanently after sinus struck them and, they were saying, Jimmy's probably another.

Jimmy read the handwriting on the wall, too, but he wouldn't believe it. He took himself in hand during the winter, got into top shape and when the barrier was sprung this year Jimmy was a new man.

He led the league in hitting and runs batted in during most of the season. While others flared and faltered, Foxx kept up a consistent bombardment.

CALIENTE TO OPEN NOV. 24

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—The new management of the once famous Agua Caliente track in Mexico pushed ahead today with plans to reopen the plant for horse racing Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 24.

Lou Anger, president of the new corporation which took over the track several weeks ago, announced that racing would be held on Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday the first week, and on Saturday and Sunday until Jan. 1. During the Santa Anita meeting racing at the border track will be held on Sundays.

"We intend to give the turf fans the best meeting possible, and will see to it that they get a square deal when they come to Caliente," Anger said.

Eight races will be held each day, with a minimum of $500 on purses. George Schilling, nationally known turf official, was named presiding steward.

The stables will be ready for the horses Nov. 1.

INJURIES HOLD BACK STANFORD

PALO ALTO. (AP)—It will be an alling Stanford football team that clashes with the University of Oregon at Palo Alto Saturday, Coach T. J. Thorndike says.

Tony Calvelli, Indian center, is fighting a slight attack of the gripper. Corky Donahue, right guard, is nursing a charley horse; Stan Andersen, right tackle, has a bad knee; Jack Clerk, left end, is undergoing treatment for a foot injury, and Bill Kirsch, right halfback, has a bad ankle.

DODGERS SIGN LEO DUROCHER

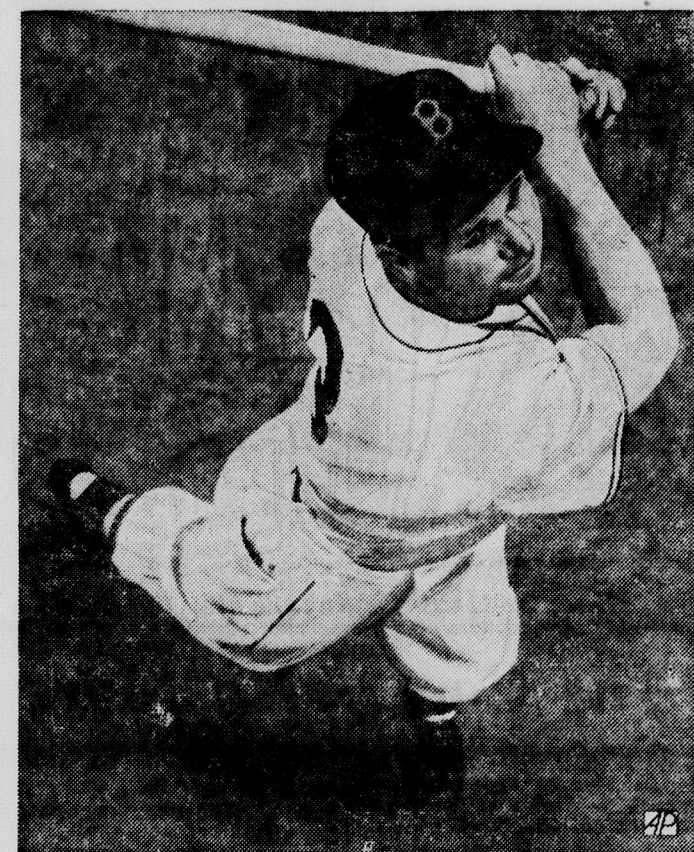

NEW YORK. (AP)—Leo Durocher, veteran shortstop of the Brooklyn Dodgers, today signed a one-year contract to manage the team in 1939. General Manager Larry MacPhail announced.

Fishermen's Race Postponed Today

GLOUCESTER, Mass. (Via Radio Telephone). (AP)—A flat calm forced postponement of today's race for the international fishermen's trophy between Captain Ben Pine's challenger, Gertrude L. Thebaud, and the Canadian defender, Captain Angus Walters' Bluenose.

The two schooners had been towed to the starting line over a glassy sea, but after drifting about for an hour or so, they picked up their tow lines again and started back to the harbor.

Today a year ago—Joe McCarty signed three-year renewal of Yankee managerial contract at $35,000 per year.

JIMMY FOXX: THEY'D WRITTEN HIS OBIT

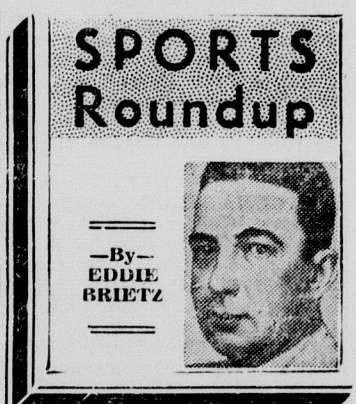

MATCHES OLD MARKS

This year he equalled his record of 1933 when he led the league at bat with a .356 figure, and in runs batted in, with 163. His batting average is close to his mark of five years ago and he has driven in even more runs. Foxx led in runs batted in on another occasion, too, in 1932 with 169.

While Greenberg's home run slugging has been outstanding, Foxx is far ahead in batting average and runs batted in and not far behind Hankus Pankus in the four-base clouts.

So, Baseball's Man-of-the-Year—James Emory Foxx.

NEW YORK. (AP)—There must be a million football pools on Broadway between 49th and 57th streets.

New York U. scouts came back telling it that this Brunner of Tulane is better than Whizzer White. Off with that cap, kid. Best baseball bet we know right now is that Babe Ruth will not be back coaching for the Dodgers (it's a cinch he won't if Leo Durocher is the new manager). . . . Ralph Guldahl is recuperating from a minor operation in a Miami hospital and soon will be ready for the winter golf swing. . . . The Baer-Hoffman troupe of fighters, wives, babies, managers, etc., has booked passage for a pleasure cruise to Honolulu.

Baseball market preview: Both the Giants and Cubs want Johnny Mize of the Cards and are ready to buy from the owner of the mazzini. (They say the Giants have offered Hank Leiber and $100,000 in cold cash). . . . The Reds appear to be about as well fixed as any outfit in the league, but they'd like to have Tony Cuccinello of the Reds as second base of the same outfit and also must get a replacement for Gus Suhr at first base and some chucking. . . . Gabby Hartnett has said Bill Lee, Clay Bryant, Dizzy Dean and Stan Hack are the only Cubs certain to be assigned to Wrigley field. . . . Yet, she looks like a busy winter.

Mrs. Helen Willis Moody's back ailment is more serious than anyone imagines, if you can believe that. . . . George Munger has developed a football spirit at Penn they haven't had there in years. . . . He says "coach" is to pompous and insists the players call him George. . . . Incidentally, they have to be in tip top shape to keep up with him in practice. . . . For a guy whose team had just won another world series, Ed Barrow, general manager of the Yanks, was a sad-looking individual yesterday. . . . Reason: He was in the throes of returning $100,000 collected for the not-to-be-played fifth game of the world series. . . . Cousin Egbert hated to see that good dough leave the Yankee offices, but out she went.

GRID CARNIVAL LURES 35,000

PASADENA. (AP)—Thirty-five thousand fans attended the fourth annual P-T. A. football carnival at the Rose Bowl last night, cheering the "East's" 32 to 7 victory over the "West."

The "East," in this case, was represented by five teams headed by Pasadena Junior college, while the "West" consisted of four prep school squads and Glendale Junior college.

DRAWN HIGH IMPOST
SAN MATEO. (AP)—Sun Portland, a one-time stake star, drew high impost of 116 pounds for the six-furlong Vallejo $1000-added handicap at Bay Meadows today. Six other horses entered in the race included Torolee, which drew 112 pounds; Pompey's power, 107; Lady Bowman, 110; Our Carolyn, 106; Kurnreigh, 107, and Better Bet, 105.

INDIANAPOLIS.—Everett Marshall, 222, LaJunta, Colo., defeated Dorve Roche, 224, Decatur, Ill., straight falls.

MINNEAPOLIS.—Jim Londres, 209, St. Louis, pinned Chick Che-wacki, 240, Oklahoma, 19:37.

CUBS OUTLINE SIX-POINT '39 PROGRAM

CHICAGO. (AP)—Philip K. Wrigley, owner of Chicago's Cubs, today placed his hope of winning another National league pennant and of winning a World Series in a six-point program.

First, of course, is a new contract to Manager Gabby Hartnett. It will be, in accordance with the Cub practice, for one year only, and Wrigley doesn't believe "we'll have any difficulty getting together on terms."

As his second point, Wrigley said, veteran players will be used as trading material in the winter marts, but, he added hastily, the "finger" has not been put on any player.

To build up the Cubs' weak supply of young players, Wrigley suggested, in point three, the setting up of a system of cooperatively owned minor league clubs.

In this connection, he added that he had found working agreements were not practical, and he was against farm clubs because the "owner has no local interest whatsoever."

Points four, five and six: Tony Lazzeri will have a place with the organization in 1939 if he wants it, although not necessarily with the Cubs proper.

Dizzy Dean, given no special prescription for his winter arm treatment, remains a strong Cub hope for next season.

Every possible effort will be made to strengthen the club, although physical limitations prevent a general shake-up.

"But," sighed the young multimillionaire, "what I would like to buy or develop is a formula to keep a team inspired. If we had only played against the Yankees the way we played against Pittsburgh the week before. . . ."

Wuxtry! Girls to Play Football Contest Sunday

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—It sounds a little far fetched, but plans are under way to put on an exhibition "football game" here Sunday between an all-girl team of six players, and a six-man team headed by Mickey Rooney, youthful movie actor.

The exhibition is being arranged as a between-halves stunt at the professional football game between the Hollywood Stars and the Fresno Crusaders.

Lee Dempsey, grid official and coach of the girls' team, declared he had a couple of backfield stars who can out-pass the male youngsters, and a center who weighs around 175.

50-1 SHOT IS RACE WINNER

NEWMARKET, Eng. (AP)—Jacques Meier's French-bred Helleniqua, a 50 to 1 shot, today won the 99th running of the Cambridge-Shire, first of England's big autumn handicaps run over a mile and eighth.

A. K. Macomber's American-owned Khasnadur, also bred in France, finished second in the role of the favorite. J. A. Swan's Domana was third in the field of 29.

William Woodward's Gaiety, only other American-owned horse in the field, was among the also rans.

Only a neat separated Helleniqua and Khasnadur, which went postward at 8 to 1. Domana, just behind her head back, was quoted at 100 to 1.

RECORDS ARE ENDANGERED THIS WEEK

NEW YORK. (AP)—Twenty-five unbeaten football teams, all of major status, face the first big autumn shake-down Saturday. Seven games bring together pairs of undefeated aggregations, eleven other groups take on major opposition capable of smearing their spotless records.

Eastern football provides a majority of the inviolate elevens with two of them meeting inter-sectional rivals. Pittsburgh, the ranking power, journeys to Madison, Wis., to meet unbeaten Wisconsin and New York U., a greatly underrated group, entertains North Carolina here.

NORTH CAROLINA TOUGH
These are two of the best. Pitt has been traveling at a terrific pace and is due for a let-down against a team that licked Marquette and Iowa. North Carolina, bouncing back from a trimming by Tulane, will be tough.

Carnegie Tech's Skibos, fresh from two easy killings, entertain Holy Cross, ranked with Dartmouth as New England's

Mrs. Farwell,
Mrs. Hall
Entertain

The fruitful harvest season was symbolized in horns of plenty spilling out their richness of fruits and nuts when Mrs. Edward M. Hall and Mrs. Lyman Farwell entertained yesterday complimenting Mrs. William Thornton White, Jr. The warm beige and brown tones in which the spacious hall home is decorated lent themselves admirably to the russet and jewel tones of these, which gave dining room table and buffet a lavish and beautiful appearance.

When guests had served themselves to the delicious buffet luncheon, they were seated at small tables centered with piles of luscious fruits, and about the long living room in which these were placed were bowls of chrysanthemums in tawny shades of autumn.

Table prizes of smart cosmetics were awarded Mrs. I. F. Landis, Mrs. George Briggs, Mrs. E. D. White, Mrs. Howard Timmons, and Miss Louise Moulton at the close of concert play, and at the same time Mrs. White was presented with an Arden beauty kit for her personal use when away from home.

Guests of Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Farwell were Mrs. Sara Johnston Haddon, Mrs. Paul Dinsmore, Mrs. Z. B. West, Mrs. Leonard G. Swales, Mrs. Charles Lewis of Puente, Mrs. Wilbur Barr, Mrs. Ray Chandler, Mrs. Howard Rapp, Mrs. Mortimer Plum, Mrs. Edgar F. Elstrom, Mrs. I. F. Landis, Mrs. H. T. Dunning, Mrs. William Jeffrey, Miss Louise Moulton, Mrs. A. I. Mellenthin, Mrs. A. G. Flagg, Mrs. Lloyd Chenoweth, Mrs. R. C. Hoiles, Mrs. E. D. MASQUE PARTY
ENJOYED BY CLASS

Spooks, goblins, owls, bats and witches made an eerie place out of the spacious third floor of the Hugh Gerrard home at 2009 Victoria drive last night when the Loyal Women's Sunday school class of the Orange Avenue Christian church held a masque and dress social.

First on the program was costume judging, with Mrs. Albert Lowen and Reginald Hartley winning the prizes. At games and contests later prizes were won by Mrs. Virgie Morgan, C. N. Turner and Albert Lowen.

Another feature of the evening was a hoodoo band composed of 20 pieces of kitchenware, which played as Mrs. P. R. Krone, Mrs. B. T. Burney, Mrs. Albert Lowen and Mrs. Gerrard arranged a table laden with Halloween goodies.

Present with the hostesses and their husbands were the Mesdames R. A. Renshaw, H. E. Switzer, Walter Henderson, Zeta Shirley, Carey Haines, Zita Pistole, E. L. Patton and Virgie Morgan and the Messrs. and Mesdames C. N. Turner, with Bobbie, Reginald Hartley, C. A. Browning, Orville S. Waters, the Farns and Mrs. A. S. Bash, little Robert Gurney and W. J. Morgan.

CLASS ENJOYS
COSTUME PARTY

Colorful Halloween decorations at Weber's bakery social room made an enjoyable background for a costume party held Monday evening by Two-in-One class of the First Methodist church.

About 35 were present to participate in a round of games and contests, highlighted by a ghost story based on actual experiences and stressing a moral tone, delivered by R. R. Lutes.

Apples in bushel baskets and sacks of pop corn were the refreshments served by a committee consisting of Mrs. Marie Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lutes, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Luhrs, and Mrs. Ruth Walker.

Mrs. Norton
Entertains At Country Club

Heralding the gaiety of the holiday season was the charming little party at which Mrs. Charles O. Norton was hostess yesterday afternoon at the Santa Ana Country club, for she chose as her floral decorations the sparkling red clustered berries which are so striking and decorative in her garden, and equally effective on the long table around which her guests were seated. Scarlet and white burning tapers carried out the red and white motif set by the vivid berries in their bowls of white pottery.

Mrs. Gilbert Brown assisted Mrs. Norton in checking and seating her guests, and at the close of the afternoon, the latter presented prizes beautifully wrapped in harmonizing tones to Mrs. Frank Pitner and Mrs. Milton Poppett.

Guests of Mrs. Norton were Mrs. E. D. White, Mrs. Poppett, Mrs. J. E. Liebig, Mrs. George Rayner, Mrs. Cotton Mather, Mrs. Adam Zaiser, Mrs. Charles Kendall, Miss Louise Tubbs, Mrs. Sam Nau, Mrs. B. H. Sharpless, Mrs. Anna Richards, Mrs. W. D. Ranney, Mrs. A. J. Cruickshank, and Mrs. Paul Doyle of Long Beach.

DELTA THETA
CHIS IN BUSINESS MEETING

Meeting in the home of Miss Betty Vorce, 1125 Orange avenue, members of Delta Theta Chi had their regular business meeting Monday evening with Miss Alice Whitten presiding.

Occupied with plans for the state convention to be held Oct. 22 and 23, the group discussed the round-table section of which Santa Ana chapter has charge. San Bernardino chapter is to be hostess at the affair with meeting place the Arrowhead Hot Springs hotel.

Miss Adeline Loptien gave a report of the successful rummage sale of last week. Names of members who had successfully passed second degree requirements and who would be eligible to receive the formal rites at convention, were read by Mrs. T. E. McLeod, advisor. A letter from the national headquarters of the sorority in Chicago informed the local chapter of a visit of Miss Frances Hill while she was east recently on a vacation.

Refreshments were served by the hostess to the Misses Adeline Loptien, Ann Detweiler, Irene Ross, Norma Kenny, Daisy Carr, Alice Whitten, Leone Baxter and Mrs. Emmet Seacord, Mrs. Harvey Deskins and Mrs. T. E. McLeod.

CANADIAN VISIT
TERMINATES FOR SANTA ANAN

Mrs. M. B. Wellington returned to her home on Lemon Heights yesterday morning after a vacation of five weeks. She went to Lennoxville, Quebec, to visit her two aunts.

It was within seven miles of her birthplace, so she met many old friends of the family, some who knew her when she was a baby. The country was wooded and very beautiful with autumn coloring. She was there almost a month.

Mrs. Wellington stopped at Cornwall, Ontario, and at Chicago to spend some time with cousins of Major Wellington.

LEAVES FOR EASTERN TRIP

Mrs. E. G. Summers of 2301 North Flower street has gone east for a six weeks' visit. She will be the guest of her sisters and brothers in St. Louis, Mo., and in south Illinois before spending some time with relatives in Chicago.

Her return trip will include Seattle where Mrs. Summers plans to stay for some time with a sister.

Clever New Name Is Chosen

Since they have been meeting regularly for so many months, a group of girls decided to organize themselves into a regular club last night when Miss Helen Blanche Andrews was hostess in her home. Henceforth, they will be known as the "Twelve Little Working Girls," with Miss Andrews heading the club as president, Mrs. Frederick Pinkston as vice president, and Miss Betty Bradley as secretary-treasurer.

Assisted by her mother, Mrs. Don Andrews, the hostess had arranged tables for a dinner hour preceding the bridge play. All decorations, including tallies and clever centerpieces followed the popular Halloween motif.

When scores were tallied, Miss Doris Flippin was awarded the prize for high score. Miss Janice Marguerat took the place of Miss Roberta McKnight who was unable to be at the first meeting since organization took place. Others who will meet the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month will be Misses Dorothy Coe, Doris Flippin, Harriet Fowler, Betty Bradley, Jean McBurney, Virginia Curry, Elaine McReynolds, Margaret Thomas, Mrs. Frederick Pinkston, and Mrs. Elmer Curry and Miss Andrews.

N. D. G. W. PLAN
FOR VISIT
FROM OFFICIAL

Greatly anticipating the visit of their grand president, Edna Briggs of San Francisco, which will occur Oct. 24 and which will be her first official visit to Southern parlors, Native Daughters of the Golden West met this week and made plans for the event. A dinner will be served at 6:30 p. m. at the Ebelle clubhouse that night, after which Mrs. Briggs will attend a meeting and initiation of the parlor. Reservations for the dinner must be made with Mrs. Rose Ford.

Plans for several other events were also made by the group, including a food sale Nov. 4 and 5, and a meeting of the sewing circle this Thursday with Mrs. Paul Elford.

Deputy Grand President Theresa Stafford of Ontario was present at the meeting at which the October birthday anniversaries of her, Mrs. Grace Crook, Mrs. Mae West, Mrs. Helen Brough, and Mrs. Eunice Fox were celebrated with flowers and gifts.

Also announced was a public card party to be given by the Daughters Tuesday, Oct. 18, at the home of Mrs. Edward Wagner, 2046 North Flower street.

MRS. ORBACH
IS HOSTESS TO EIGHTSOME

Mrs. Carl Orbach entertained at a delightful little dessert bridge party yesterday in her home at 1524 North Sycamore street.

Brilliant Mexican sunflowers lent color to the tables and room, and after bridge play Mrs. Hendrie was winner of first prize and Mrs. Harry Jackson was consoled.

With Mrs. Orbach were Mrs. Robert Heffner, Mrs. Harry Jackson, Mrs. Gail Jordan, Mrs. Raymond Smith, Mrs. Carleton Smith and Mrs. Hendrie.

LIVES AND TIMES
SECTION MEETS

With Mrs. Burt Zaiser and Mrs. Stanley Anderson as hostesses in the latter's home at 2040 North Flower street, the Lives and Times section of Junior Ebelle held the initial session of the fall season last evening.

Mrs. Tevis Westgate presided at a short business meeting in the absence of Mrs. Wayne Harrison, who is ill. She introduced Thomas Glenn of the Santa Ana Junior college, who gave an interesting talk on his summer spent abroad.

During the refreshment hour Mrs. Edward Vincent, who is the mother of Mrs. Wilbur Barr and is visiting her daughter here, and Mrs. Westgate presided at a pretty tea table. The hostesses used frosted grapes, candlelight and blue glass to make their table most attractive.

Other guests with Mrs. Vincent were Mrs. Q. L. Hardy, Mrs. Ben Tarver, Jr., Mrs. Hume West and Mrs. Richard McConnell. Members attending were the Mesdames Wilbur Barr, Kenneth Conner, Frank Finley, Edward Hall, Frank Harrington, Arnold Norton, Joseph Smith, Tevis Westgate and Lyle Kelly.

Next meeting of the group is to be Nov. 15, with Mrs. Harold Harrison and Mrs. Harrington co-hostesses, in the Harrington residence, at 1114 North Lowell street.

SESSION TO TAKE PLACE

There is to be an all-day conference meeting of the Women's society of the Santa Ana Valley association tomorrow in the First Baptist church at 712 North Main street.

The morning session is to convene at 9:30 a. m., with eleven departments of work represented. Mrs. R. W. Hollinger, state president of the association, is to attend this meeting.

Miss Janet McKay as guest speaker, the afternoon hours are scheduled to begin at 1:45 p. m. All women interested in missionary work are invited to attend the meetings.

WRYCENDES
WILL ATTEND
CONCLAVE

Plans of a coming girls' conference at Glendale Oct. 22 and 23, were discussed at Wrycendes Maedgen's regular dinner meeting last night, and it was announced by Miss Leone Baxter, president, that the local club had been appointed in charge of favors for the conclave. She appointed Miss Imogene McCauley in charge of making them, and announced that to date Miss Betty Niedergall, Miss McCauley, Miss Janice Yetmar, Miss Alice Bell, and Miss Cecilia Plantamura had revealed their intention to attending the meet.

Miss Yetmar had arranged a birthday celebration last night for those members whose anniversaries occurred between June and October, and individual lighted cakes were presented each one. Miss Agnes McKinstry led a song interval with Miss Campbell at the piano, after which the group adjourned to the Y lounge where they enjoyed a reading of "I'd Rather Be Right," by Mona Summers Smith.

DEMOLAY CIRCLE
MEETS WITH
MRS. HARDY

Gay pompon dahlias and mammoth zinnias decorated the Harbor boulevard home of Mrs. A. Hardy last night when she entertained the Demolay Mothers' circle at dessert and bridge.

Miss Anita Mae Hardy assisted her mother in serving. It was announced that the group would meet Nov. 8 at the home of Mrs. Fred Triplett, 518 South Main street, with Mrs. George McFarlane as hostess.

Present last night with Mrs. Hardy were Mrs. Triplett and the Mesdames John Luxembourg, Lesmae McCowan, Everett Cornet, Silas Weahunt, Edgar Higday, W. G. Pagenkopp, Glenn Gage, Nell Neighbor, E. F. Gaebe, Roy Rother, G. A. Warren and E. E. Frisby.

CONTRACT
IN CLUBHOUSE

In the beautifully decorated Ebelle clubhouse lounge, members of the Junior Ebelle contract section met last evening with Mrs. Perry Davis, Mrs. Raymond Smith, Miss Mary Nau and Miss Mary Tuthill as hostesses.

Mrs. Daniel Jones was awarded the prize for high score, with Mrs. Davis as second high. Members will meet the second Tuesday evening of the month this year instead of the third Tuesday as per last year. At the next meeting, it was decided to have an instructor present.

Attending last evening were the Mesdames George Nelson, John Maxwell, Dolph Kelsey, Milton Poppett, Luther Davidson, Francis Norton, Daniel F. Jones, Ralph Cunningham, James Merigold, Osborne Holmes, Lincoln Spaulding, Quentin Matzen, Raymond Smith, Perry Davis and the Misses Ruth Fitz, Marion Hawk, Martha and Mary Tuthill, Mary Nau and Helen Knox.

GROUP IS ENTERTAINED

Hostess to the Domestic Arts club yesterday, Mrs. C. J. Skirvin received the group in her home for a potluck luncheon, with afternoon hours occupied with sewing and talk.

With the hostess were Mrs. T. E. Williams, Mrs. W. B. Williams, Mrs. C. F. Skirvin, Mrs. W. B. Martin, Mrs. J. C. Sexton, Mrs. T. P. Kingery, Mrs. H. C. Leeding, Mrs. Fleetwood Bell.

Mrs. Charles Johnson was unable to be present at yesterday's meeting as she is in Modesto visiting with her daughter, and Mrs. E. G. Summers, another member, has recently left for the east where she expects to be for six weeks.

MRS. ROBERT SANDON

Mrs. Sandon
Wins High
Legion Post

Election of Mrs. Robert (Tona) Sandon of Santa Ana to the presidency of the Orange county council of Auxiliary Legion auxiliaries yesterday was a tribute to her long and capable career of membership in the local auxiliary. She succeeds Mrs. Vivian Nicodemus of Brea, and after the election held at a meeting of more than 100 county auxiliary members here yesterday, was installed by "Mother" Fannie Reeves of the local chapter, who is first county president.

Named to serve for the year with Mrs. Sandon were Mrs. Gertrude Cleary of Tustin, vice-president; Mrs. Blanche Roepke of Santa Ana, chaplain; Mrs. Jean Gaddis of Anaheim, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Gladys Stein of Laguna Beach, marshal; Mrs. Hazel Best of Anaheim, musician, and the Mesdames Pauline Cleary of Tustin, Gerry Crow of Brea, and Elsie Fairbank of Fullerton, directors.

After the installation presided over by "Mother" Reeves with Mrs. Anna Kramer of Costa Mesa acting as sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. Pauline Cleary, past district president, presented Mrs. Sandon with a handsome gavel made by her son, Paul Cleary.

Election and installation followed a luncheon served by the local auxiliary at Veterans' hall, with Mrs. Sandon as dining room chairman. A number of honored guests were in attendance, among them R. R. Dinsmore of Riverside, 21st district commander; Cy Featherly of Santa Ana, district Americanization chairman; Ethel March of Upland, past department president; Eunice Hughes, 25th district president; Dorothy Jewell, 21st district president; Pauline Cleary, past 21st district president; Nella Norton, district vice-president, and the local Gold Star Mothers, as well as all past county presidents, who are annually invited to the county meeting at Santa Ana hostesses. In this group yesterday were the Mesdames Fannie Reeves, Vera Barry of Huntington Beach, Florence Smith of Anaheim, Marjorie Peabody of La Habra, Lillian Thorpe of Garden Grove, Josephine Lykke of Santa Ana, and Ruth Shippey of Orange.

Next meeting of the council will be held Nov. 14 at San Clemente.

MEN OF CLASS
ARE HOSTS

With the men who are members of the Friendly Bible class of the Richmond avenue Methodist church, the group met last night in its regular monthly social gathering at the church bungalow. Costumed and masked, members enjoyed games in the Halloween motif, and when refreshments were served, these followed the same idea.

A short business session presided over by O. P. Veach, it was decided to entertain the Boy Scout troop No. 31 at the November meeting, the troop being sponsored by the class.

Attending the affair were Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Church, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, Miss Elizabeth Wyant, Mrs. Mary E. Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. E. Crowder, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Harding, Mr. and Mrs. Earle L. Boyes, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Damp, Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Tuttle, and the class teacher, Lloyd Willcutt.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Roy entertained their 500 club Saturday evening in their home at 1212 South Ross street.

Preceding the evening card hours, the hostess served dinner at a pretty table in yellow appointments.

Prizes in the games went to Mrs. W. F. Groves and Jack Van Beek. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Groves, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Van Beek, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Phipps, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hawkins of Orange, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Blackmore and Jack Knobe of Los Angeles.

MONTHLY SUPPER
Estella Daniel Missionary society will hold its monthly dinner meeting at the church Thursday. Members are to bring a covered dish and their own table service, and are urged to be there promptly at 6 p. m. since many wish to attend the 7:30 p. m. lecture of Dr. Carl Knopf at Willard auditorium.

VISEL-HAUGHTON
STUDIO HAS
FALL OPENING

Always anticipated by their many friends and pupils is the annual formal fall opening at which teachers connected with the Visel-Haughton Studios are hostesses. This year's event proved again their ability in their various artistic pursuits, when a charming program was given in the auditorium at 206 North Broadway that is a branch of their studios at 425 West First street.

The affair was split into two divisions, with in the receiving line each time, Holly Lash Visel, Carolyn Haughton, Lois Rees Auer, Mary Morton, Grace Hansen Buell, Helen Mortensen, Grace E. Groves, Katherine Collins, Mrs. E. T. Johnston and Mrs. Lyla Northrup. For the afternoon they had asked Mrs. W. B. Hellis to preside as assisting hostess, and Mrs. Robert Hockaday to pour. Performing the same duties in the evening were Mrs. Horace Howard, Mrs. James Metzger and Mrs. Stanley Reinhaus.

Among the spacious room were many lovely blossoms, many of them from the gardens of Mrs. E. T. McFadden, Mrs. Dudley of Anaheim, Mrs. Jay Hamill, and Miss Maurie Hamill. Decorations for the tea table were arranged by Mrs. Melvin Ball, and junior high and high school girls assisted in serving.

After a charming address of welcome given by Miss Haughton, who referred briefly to the cultural and spiritual values of studying the arts, Mrs. Visel delighted the audiences with two solos in her rich contralto voice.

After her came Lois Rees Auer, who with her usual ability, read a humorous selection on international relations. Then followed Grace E. Groves with two accordion solos, and Miss Collins, assisted by Mrs. Visel, in a group of songs.

Miss Morton, assisted by William Stevenson of Beverly Hills, gave an interesting demonstration of the new steps in ballroom dancing, and by herself presented two new dances. Mrs. Buell gave a delightful group of violin numbers, and the program was concluded with groups of modern piano numbers played by May Stern of Los Angeles, and Max Renfer of Santa Ana, both pupils of Miss Haughton.

Miss Ruth Armstrong, Mrs. A. Watts, and Miss Katherine Stewart served as gracious guest accompanists.

DINNER PARTY
CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY

In celebration of her birthday anniversary Saturday Mrs. W. A. West gathered a group of close friends together in her home on West Seventeenth street for a turkey dinner.

Jaunty Halloween decorations were on the table, highlighted by black cats and an orange bowl of flowers.

Many lovely gifts were presented Mrs. West by the group, who included Mr. West, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stern, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Beaman of Huntington Beach, Mrs. Mary Matthews, and Robert Wallace.

COMWOLEI CLUB IS HOSTESSED

Members of Comwolei club enjoyed a Spanish luncheon downtown yesterday before returning to the home of Mrs. Howard Bear for a business and social session.

Mrs. Richard Paggett was co-hostess for the day.

The afternoon was spent in making quilt blocks for a quilt the club plans to sell. Special guests for the day were Mrs. Lee Hunt, Mrs. Robert Webb, and Mrs. A. J. Kirchman.

Hostesses of the group next month Nov. 8, will be Mrs. Ralph Watson and Mrs. L. A. Parsons. Members present yesterday with the hostesses were the Mesdames Thomas Clark, Carol Ault, Albert Bauman, Ralph Dozier, William Elliott, Whitford Hall, Ralph Watson, Howard Youel, and Ben Fletcher.

NORTHWEST IS VACATION SCENE

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Rowland just returned from a two weeks' vacation into the Northwest, and are at home on Hewes avenue.

Driving first to Carson City, Nev., they then visited Lake Tahoe, where they visited with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Beals, also of Santa Ana.

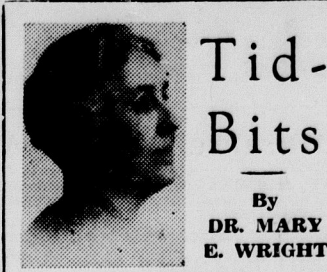

Leaving Tahoe, they crossed into Oregon, and stopped at Crater Lake. They continued into Washington as far as Seattle. On their return trip they visited with Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Cushman of Ukiah. The Rowlands drove home via the coast route.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Because of illness, Mrs. R. G. Bond will not be able to receive the Mary Blair class of the First Presbyterian church, but the group will meet in the Fellowship room of the church at 2 p. m. Friday.

DR. MARY
E. WRIGHT

Ann Flanagan drove around to pick up me and Mrs. E. B. Collier and took us to the Flanagan's pretty apartment to have a game of auction with her dear mother, Mrs. Mary Flanagan. I noticed one of the very loveliest photos of a child and asked who the angelic baby was. Mrs. Flanagan answered that it was her grandson, Bernard, now six years old. The little lad was later allowed to wait up to see the guests before retiring, and was surprised to know that a woman could be a doctor!

During that evening we had an extra treat in a lovely piano and vocal recital in the apartment above us. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Best (Marjorie Walton) live there. We greatly enjoyed the fine tone quality of the piano on which Mr. Mason of Anaheim played, while Mr. Best sang in a fine tenor voice.

Have you ever noticed the grand old pecan tree on the junior college campus? It is at least 80 feet high and straighter, yet not so old, as the one in the Winbigler grounds that spreads out over the whole garden. The campus tree is 40 years old.

I never saw lovelier corsages worn than those sent by John McFadden Hoy to his summer bride and her two mothers, worn at the tea last Saturday. The new Mrs. Hoy's gardenia was surrounded by pale blue delphinium sprays outlining the neck of her pale pink gown. Mrs. Hoy, Mr. and Mrs. Julian were glad, with a lovely rosebud nestling in the heart of each, and twisted with chenille covered wire.

At that same function Mrs. A. E. Kelly looked perfectly charming in dark blue lace with a gardenia corsage presented by her hostess. What a very personable couple the Kellys are!

Little Jacqueline Wilson, "Jackie" to her family, was sitting quietly at a table in front of a mirror while mother, Mrs. J. A. Wilson, Jr., shopped for a new hat. The little two-year-old was happy with a dolly made of a pencil with a doll's head atop and wrapped in a piece of silk. She cooed and played with her "child" and with the hand mirror that reflected both small girl and dolly in a pretty manner.

The smallest complete postoffice in the world (so printed on their envelopes) is the De Luz, halfway between Mojave and Fallbrook, on the De Luz road. It is just 10 feet square, with boxes opening on one side. When a new postmistress was recently appointed, the entire building was carried over to her home.

Ruth Venable, who received so many blue ribbons for her china painting at the Pomona fair, has a beautiful showing in a jewelry shop on Fourth street. There is a pair of lovely periwinkle blue luster vases with a wide figured gold band, a sandwich plate with peacocks on gold, a dresser tray gold bordered and with a quaint pansy design, and many other pretty things.

When Mrs. Eva C. Wheeler was in Santa Ana to speak before the W. C. T. U. recently she was entertained overnight by the Theo. Winbigler. Mrs. Wheeler was a close friend of Mrs. Winbigler's mother.

COLUMBUS WAS A PIRATE

Most of the incidents of the life of Columbus—and even the man himself—are given to such controversy that historians studying his life often confuse fact and fiction.

Well credited, however, is the knowledge that Columbus began his seafaring career as a pirate.

True, he was a mere lad, but a pirate—swashbuckling and daring—nevertheless.

After his sojourn at Pavia Columbus returned to Genoa. By his own statement he was then 14 years old. He readily fell in with John of Anjou, Duke of Calabria, as the spice of adventure offered by the life of a buccaneer was too much for young Columbus to resist.

The Duke was fitting out an expedition to recover possession of the Kingdom of Naples for his father, Duke Rene, in 1459. It is known to have been nothing more than a band of corsairs bent on a piratical adventure.

Leave It to Latvia

Latvia's busy minister to the United States, Dr. Alfred Bilmanis, made a long automobile tour last summer, and now has asked our State Department to recover for him the gasoline taxes he paid in 10 states.

It seems we have a reciprocal arrangement, under which our minister to Latvia is exempted from such taxes there. So Dr. Bilmanis wants refunds of 52c from Mississippi and of similar amounts from Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Tennessee and Texas.

Getting this money back for Dr. Bilmanis threatens to strain all the resources of American diplomacy. For instance, Secretary Hull may have to persuade Mississippi's legislature to pass a special law before the state treasurer can disgorge that 52c.

Why go to all that trouble? Latvia owes us an $8,178,080 war debt on which she has paid nothing since 1933. Knock off 52c to satisfy Dr. Bilmanis' claim against Mississippi, reducing the Latvian war debt to $8,178,079.48. Cancel other dimes and pennies to offset the taxes collected from Dr. Bilmanis by Alabama, Arkansas and the rest. Here, obviously, is the ideal way out of this grave new international crisis.

"Combat the restrictions of bureaucracy" is the battle-cry of Chairman Robertson of Westinghouse. That's what the condemned man thought as he looked up at the hangman's noose.

Breakers Ahead!

Let this be recorded as a mere man's protest against the growing tendency in the direction of super-daintiness that threatens the integrity of that ancient and noble institution known as the sandwich.

"Open-face sandwiches" are being concocted and served by the luncheonette places, the shoppes, the milk bars and even—we hear—the old-fashioned cafes and restaurants.

Now, we've stood for a lot of things in the way of food, things stuck on toothpicks, things rolled in chopped-up nuts, things pasted on top of tiny squares of bread. We've taken these as "appetizers" without much fuss, although amazed at times at our own forbearance.

We cannot, however, remain silent while our old and trusted friend, the sandwich, is dismembered to make somebody a holiday.

If anybody wants to decorate one slice of bread on one side and offer it to be eaten, let him—or her—find some other name for it than sandwich.

A sandwich is two slices of bread, with proper and substantial—although possibly mysterious—filling. And it never can be anything else. At least not in our bright lexicon. Give us two slices of bread on our sandwiches, or give us none!

The office mystery is the rising time of the beautiful blonde who gets to work promptly at 8 a. m. daily, although she must spend hours piling those many curls atop her head.

It Is So Ordered

Today America celebrates its discovery, on the 12th, by Christopher Columbus.

It prepares also to wash all windows on Nov. 1 after the kids have done with soaping them on Halloween.

Poets will be polishing up such words as "sere" and "drear" to tell about the melancholy things that are going to happen to leaves which now make the countryside and part of the cityside gorgeous.

It is altogether fitting and proper, too, we think, that this mellow month have one of its 31 golden days set aside for observance of the beginning of a rare and fine old American institution—the pumpkin pie.

Fine yellow pumpkins are ripening on the vine now, and soon the new-style pumpkin pie, always new, never-changing, will be with us in all its glory.

How about setting aside the fourth Saturday in October as pumpkin pie day, a sort of a preliminary testing-out and planning day prior to Thanksgiving?

All right, then; it's a go.

Prosecution of Jews has started in Sudetenland, European dispatches report. 'Tis an old European custom, between wars they practice by persecuting Jews.

Reason Enough

Much information of "extremely little value" is being drilled into the heads of school children, according to the Educational Policies Commission of the National Education Association.

The commission wants to know why the kids should spend time learning "that the capital of Honduras is Tegucigalpa, that there were two Peloponnesian Wars and three Punic Wars," etc.

Why, that's easy. How else can the young fry grow up to become experts at answering the silly questions in radio quizzes?

Chamberlain should hurry up his increase of armament. In Sudetenland Hitler has bagged a whole lot of it, right away.

Fair Enough

NEW YORK—Judge Landis has not quite made clear his reasons for barring Rogers Hornsby from the press box at the world series, but whatever they were they were insufficient. He should have no more authority to bar anyone from the ball yard press boxes than a president of the United States has to rule a man out of the press gallery of congress. Hornsby is a noted veteran of the baseball industry, and if there are any bugs on his record Landis should have the courage to give him a trial and either rule him off openly or clear him while he was still active in the business. This may seem a small issue, but the actions of the judge and a few years ago—of Jim Farley in the prizefight business in New York have tended to weaken public resistance to the assumption of dictatorial powers by men in public office. True, Landis is an employee of the baseball industry, but that does not entirely relieve him of public responsibility. He came to his job at a time when it was openly known that some ball players had been "whispered out" of the game on the suspicion of collusion with crooked gamblers and, with his own record of fearlessness on the bench, was executed to guarantee the public protection from conspiracy and the players' protection from unjust punishment for mere secret accusation. Hornsby's case indicates that the baseball magnates are up to their old methods again, for there obviously is some conspiracy against him, and yet he never has had an opportunity to confront any charges.

FARLEY'S POWER
Farley, in his time as chairman of the prizefight commission, developed an appetite for arbitrary power by watching the dictatorial actions of old William Muldoon, his colleague on the board, who became so arrogant that any offense, however unintentional, to his swollen dignity was punishable by the authority of New York state. It was an offense even to smoke a cigarette in his presence because he hated cigarettes and those who smoked them. He was a man to be flattered and placated at any sacrifice, and Mr. Farley sat by. The baseball writers themselves are in part to blame for the judge's extension of his authority to the press box. For years they permitted the reservation to be made a hangout for dozens of men having no connection with the newspaper business, and there came a time when the rows were so cluttered with guests and ball players attended by their ghosts that an ordinary working stiff with a story to write had to sit on his haunches on an eight-inch section of pine plank with sightseers sprawled all over him from both sides and behind. The late Don Skane called the turn of some years ago when, on entering the stand for a world series at the Yankee stadium, he surveyed the piled up rows of old ball players, actors and all, each with a spook to forge his copy for him, and exclaimed: "It looks like a haunted house."

WORKERS WIN OUT
This old fraud has just about expired now and sport sections which once were largely given over to pathetic fakes attributed to ball players and even to their wives and children are now filled by the work of professional newspapermen. In Washington the accredited journalists guard their privileges, and an effort is made to keep out lobbyists and others having no rightful place in the press gallery lest there come a scandal—something which would smear the good name of the corps.

The baseball writers have been less careful, and although a gambler or fixer might find no advantage in the press box so far removed from intimacy with the game it would be wise, nevertheless, to sweep out and restrict admission to those who can prove an assignment to cover the games. As for the old ball players, the industry itself should make provisions to accommodate them in a veterans' section in the stands. It does seem cheap and unappreciative of the magnates not to welcome at least those who have played in the past world series and certain others of great distinction instead of shoving them off into the press section, where, to accommodate them, the writers have to falsify their legitimate ticket requirements.

Landis, however, extends his power to the press box and the air in baseball and gives a challenging example of the manner in which a little authority may be enlarged.

Mrs. R. F. Donaldson and daughter, Mrs. E. E. Carlisle, of Orange, boarded an early morning Los Angeles car. They went on business and pleasure and spent the day there.

County Superintendent R. P. Mitchell went to Bay City this afternoon to meet with the school trustees of that district.

A number of plans for the Olive bridge were submitted to the board of supervisors yesterday. All were rejected but those of the Munoz and Mox, of Los Angeles, and these will be further considered by the board.

The Santa Ana chapter of the American Woman's League will hold a meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. B. Rowland, 1306 North Broadway. All members are invited to attend, as an interesting program is being planned.

JOYS AND GLOOMS
Though far from agreeing on what they are likely to be, informed observers are nearly unanimous in expecting more important things to result from the Munich accord than the accord itself, of course excepting the fact that the latter prevented a general war.

As usual, these prophets are pretty evenly divided between joys and glooms. The latter hint, not too delicately, that Britain and France have had something put over them by Germany and Italy, or by their own premiers, and that they will presently wake up to the fact and do something about it; just what is not clear. In any case they believe that Hitler, Mussolini & Co. will disregard their pledges or find some plausible way around them and will march on, either to the complete conquest of Central Europe or to a situation where England, France and Russia shortly will be forced to fight for self-preservation anyway.

The optimists see nearly everything through rose-colored glasses. They believe that the Munich agreement has paved the way to (1) a permanent pact of peace between Germany and Britain, (2) a new friendship and understanding between Germany and France, (3) resumption of full diplomatic relations between France and Italy, disrupted during the Ethiopian row, and the inferential recognition by France of Italy's conquest, (4) a full accord between England and Italy and possibly a British loan for Mussolini, (5) settlement of the civil war in Spain, possibly through the restoration of the monarchy with Don Juan, exiled Prince of the Asturias, on the throne, (6) restoration of war-lost colonies to Germany or at least an arrangement whereby the Reich can get needed raw materials therefrom and, most important of all, (7) a general four-power agreement settling at one swoop all the remaining Central European problems and providing for some measure of mutual disarmament.

While, at this stage, almost any prophecy is immature, it may be said truthfully that the optimists have more superficial facts on their side than have the pessimists.—L. A. Times.

The Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON. — It's still touch-and-go whether the president will take to the campaign stump again.

Privately, he doesn't want to. There are too many local head-aches lying around to suit him. He had all he wanted for one year when he made his trip across the country several months ago.

His idea is to have the boys come to him for "conferences." That gives them some favorable publicity and saves him the wear and tear of knocking about the country dodging local hot coals.

This is the inside reason why those democratic candidates have been beating trails to the White House and Hyde Park during the last few weeks. If Mohammed won't go to the mountain then the mountain—if it's running for office—must go to Mohammed.

But the boys who have been hiking to the front porch haven't abandoned their clamor for Roosevelt to take the stump. In fact, they have intensified their under-cover pressure, and not alone on the president, personally. They are also putting tremendous heat on Jim Farley to get action.

Jim himself needs no persuading. He has been in favor of another "swing around the circuit" for some time. Jim considers New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Iowa and Kansas very doubtful battlegrounds which require strenuous campaigning.

But last month when he suggested a stumping tour, Roosevelt waved him aside, saying he was too preoccupied with the explosive European situation.

Roosevelt's final decision will depend largely on the report of a confidential scout who is making a canvass of important danger spots. If he brings word that the president's personal appearance is necessary to stave off damaging democratic defeats, it's a good bet Roosevelt will take to the rails again. If the scout's findings are reassuring, there will be no presidential junket.

DISSENTER
New legal phrase, coined by newsmen covering the supreme court to describe Justice McReynolds' absence from the opening session, at which Chief Justice Hughes warmly lauded the late Justice Cardozo.

"Dissent from Eulogy."
Note:—When Cardozo took the oath of office, McReynolds—who had secretly opposed his appointment—ostentatiously read a newspaper.

TOWNSEND AND WHEELER
Congressman Jerry O'Connell, who made the front pages last spring by baiting Mayor Frank ("I Am The Law") Hague, has just made the painful discovery that Dr. Francis Townsend is more interested in taking a wallop at the New Deal than in electing backers of his pension scheme to congress.

No man in congress has been more zealous in pushing the Townsend plan than O'Connell. It was one of his major planks in the 1936 campaign, and throughout the last session he was constantly badgering floor leaders to allow a vote on the issue. When Townsend was sentenced to jail for contempt of the house, O'Connell was the first to ask the president for a pardon.

Despite this 100 percent record, and a public statement by Townsend a few months ago urging O'Connell's renomination and election, the aged pensionist is now beating the war drums for O'Connell's republican opponent.

Behind this is the secret hand of Sen. Burton K. Wheeler, leader of the anti-administration democrats and bitter foe of O'Connell. Fearful that reelection to the senate will challenge him for his seat in 1940, Wheeler tried to defeat the young New Dealer in the primary. The maneuver was a dud; O'Connell licked Wheeler's candidate hands down. But the setback did not discourage Wheeler.

He has thrown himself into the election scrap with redoubled vigor, stumping O'Connell's district, lambasting both him and the president. By pulling wires he prevailed on Townsend, also rabidly anti-New Deal, to desert O'Connell and pump for the GOP candidate.

Note: Administration generalists, aroused by the Wheeler-Townsend ganging up on O'Connell, will shortly come to his aid with a big electrifying bouquet.

What Other Editors Say

UBIQUITOUS COAT HANGER

A man in Washington has found something to do with old coat hangers. And he isn't a government expert either. Louis, a manufacturer of jewelry, has just completed a table lamp in the form of a street car, made in a year's spare time by straightening, snipping and curling into attractive shapes the heavy wire of the hangers which cleaners leave in such numbers to clutter up the average clothes closet.

If urban men were as handy and resourceful as are farmers with the baling wire that accumulates in the hay-mow they probably would use old coat hangers to repair the family jalopy. Rotogravure sections recently showed a picture of a piano someone had built out of old newspapers rolled together tightly and varnished. With the electric razor beginning to ease the unsolved problem of what to do with old razor blades, a great deal of mental energy can be diverted to finding a use for old wire clothes hangers.

Will our amateur craftsmen who are accomplished with pliers and soldering iron present us an array of waste-baskets, sewing baskets, dish draining racks, doughnut frames, soap dishes, lamp-shade "what-not" cabinets fashioned of this neglected raw material? Or, more simply, perhaps here is a source of home-made knitting needles and fly-swatter handles.

Of course, there is always the possibility of gathering up an arm-load of the hangers and giving them back to the cleaner when he comes to the house. He is usually glad to get them.—Christian Science Monitor.

ULTIMATUM

A young man who had got his degree had been looking around for a job.

Entering an office he asked to see the manager. While waiting he said to the office boy: "Do you suppose there is any opening here for a university graduate?"

"Well, there will be," was the reply, "if the boss doesn't raise my salary ten shillings a week by tomorrow!"—Birmingham Weekly Post.

The Mailbag

Public opinion, or what somebody in office imagines to be public opinion, is our ruler. If public opinion is active, the politicians and people all up and take notice. There is a definite need for outspoken talking and thinking on public matters. Honest, intelligent fair discussion of our problems is immensely useful. So that every citizen may have his say and contribute to the formation of public opinion, The Journal invites letters to The Mailbag. Please limit communications to 350 words. The editor reserves the right to shorten all letters in excess of that length to ask:

"WHY THE DELAY?"

To the Editor: Legally I cannot write to the United States supreme court and expose my opinion on the present Strecher case of Arkansas; hence this open letter.

The case, as I understand it, is to decide if membership in the Communist party is a violation of the Constitution and in connection therewith perhaps is to decide phases of deportation or punishment.

Knowing for a certainty that Communism, if successful, will mean the possible overthrow of our government by violence, why all the legal whereas and delay? If Washington had the courage to cross the Delaware and Lincoln had the courage to emancipate slaves why should not the supreme court have courage to decide as the Constitution commands?

Simply masquerading under the name of the political word "party" should not offer Communists protection; if so, why should not the gangsters organize the Gangster party to protect them from arrest; or the racketeers organize, incorporate and call themselves Gentlemen Profiteer party?

Conspiracy against the government should be dealt with severely. S. W. BURKE.

Effective and uniform heating, ventilation and air conditioning requirements that must be considered in plans for heating the home in winter.

Ventilation usually takes care of itself in winter, according to Charles E. Couchman, industrial hygiene inspector of the Baltimore City Health Department. Heating units are generally so arranged that natural currents of heated air cause a sufficient amount of air motion. The cracks and crevices found even around closed doors and windows normally allow enough fresh air to enter the house. This applies to the daytime. At night, of course, windows must be opened in sleeping rooms.

Any standard heating unit, such as a furnace or stove, will effectively heat a dwelling, Mr. Couchman said, if there is good air circulation. This is particularly true if the dwelling is uniformly heated and drafts are excluded.

The temperature of the house should be kept at or about 72 degrees Fahrenheit. Moist, warm air of this temperature is comfortable, healthful and economical.

On the economy side, Mr. Couchman emphasized the fact that a more quickly burning one in that it heats a greater quantity of air and allows less heat to go to waste by escaping up the chimney. Coal gas, produced when you add fuel to your fire, is dangerous as well as unpleasant. The danger is due to the presence in coal gas of deadly, invisible and non-smelling carbon monoxide. Because of this situation, Mr. Couchman advises checking to see that flue pipe and chimney are airtight, so that none of the dangerous gas can enter the house. In order to get rid of the unburned coal gas and poisonous carbon monoxide, always keep the damper of the flue pipe at least partly open. Avoid too much draft, however, or when fuel is added to the fire the heat that results may be enormous enough to set the whole house on fire.

SECOND NATURE

Two friends sat on the sea sands at Long Beach watching the bathers. There was one among the latter who won their admiration by his expertness.

This person looked like an Indian. He dived beautifully and swam like a swan. But where he particularly shone was at treading water. Holding his head and shoulders above the surface, he literally walked back and forth through the surf.

"Wonder, isn't he?" stated the first spectator.

"It doesn't surprise me," said the second. "He's only doing what you'd expect him to do. He used to be a letter carrier in Venice."

—Christian Advocate.

NOT RIFE

"These eggs are very small," complained the housewife to her grocer.

"Straight from the farm this morning, madam," declared the grocer.

"That's the trouble with these farmers," he persisted. "They're so anxious to get their eggs sold that they take them off the nest too soon."—Wall Street Journal.

I'LL TELL YOU....

BY BOB BURNS

Yesterday I went into a big department store down town and the counter I visited was so busy I couldn't get waited on. Right across the aisle stood a salesman doing nothin'. Do you think I could get him to wait on me? No sir, it wasn't his department! I think all salesmen should get their trainin' in a small town store.

I remember when I worked in the general store down home, a lady called up one day and she said, "Send me a bucket of lard, tell my husband to come home, send a spool of No. 60 white cotton thread and vote the state Democratic ticket for me."

Philosophy

Are you thinking of coming to New York to look for work? If you are, here's a question I want to ask:

Are you sure there is no opportunity for you right there in your home town?

Then here's a thought I want to leave with you: The smartest people make their own opportunities! However, if you feel you must come, do you want to hear what an expert has to say?

Well, there is one woman who knows more about that subject than any other person under the sun. She is Miss Virginia Milly Way. She is Miss Virginia Milly Way. She sees them come every day—and she knows what happens to them.

I asked her to draw up six hints for people who are thinking of coming to New York to look for work, or careers, and this is what she gave me:

1. Don't come at all unless you are already trained in the line of work you are to seek.
2. Before you come, arm yourself with as many letters of introduction as you can get to people who may be able to help you find employment.
3. Be prepared to spend about twice as much for food and lodging as you had in mind.
4. Write to the employment department of companies engaged in the kind of work you want and send what chance there is for an interview. You may get no response, but you have nothing to lose by trying—beyond a few postage stamps. (Most people will reply to a letter if a stamped and self-addressed envelope is enclosed.)
5. If you are a girl, or a boy under 16, jot down the name of the Travelers' Aid society. If you are hard up, they may be able to take you in and let you work for your board.
6. Last and most important, if possible, bring with you a return trip ticket.

Do you get exhausted and add to it by worrying over all you have to do? If so, slip away if possible, over the hectic city life for a few days in the country. I once spent a long week-end at Pocono Manor high in the Pocono mountains of Pennsylvania.

I took a buggy ride, yes sir, a real buggy ride behind a white horse trotting along foaming mountain streams, boiling and leaping over boulders as they rushed to the sea. Each side of the road was banked with mountain laurel and rhododendron. And far away to the horizon, rolled range after range of the pine-clad Pocono mountains. This beautiful region is only one hundred miles from the noisy harassed sidewalks of New York.

Yes, sir, if you are tired, get away from familiar scenes and go fishing in the country.

Remarkable Remarks

It is a great advantage to have the president sitting in the White House mansion in a rather detached way, and his cold, therefore, has been a blessing.

—Stephen T. Early, secretary to the president, on catarrh and diplomacy.

Smugness is a national disease in this country.

—Mrs. Jacob Preiffer, Philadelphia, addressing the Women's Interdenominational union.

There is no international power of agreement which would have the right to take precedence over German right.

—Adolf Hitler.

We should worry less over what is liberal than what is honest.

—Herbert Hoover.

The next national campaign will be between a republican liberal party and a democratic radical party.

—Representative Bruce Barton of New York.

TAKE SOMETHING HEAVY

"Can you let me have a book, please?" asked the woman of the library assistant.

"Certainly," was the reply. "Do you want something light?"

"It doesn't matter a bit," said the customer, helpfully. "I have my car with me."—Tit-Bits.
